Changes to council wards branded a 'mess'

ELECTORAL boundary changes in West Dorset have been branded a "mess" as town and district councillors in Bridport voice their concerns over proposals.

Opposition to the plans, which could see West Dorset District Council reduced from 48 members to 42, has emerged with the possibility of the Bridport South and Bothenhampton ward reduced to two councillors instead of three.

Dave Rickard, Bridport town councillor and former mayor, believes any loss of representation would be a bad move for Bridport.

He said: "It's not clear what the advantages are meant to be if Bridport South loses a councillor, which appears to be what may happen.

"With the re-drawing of the boundaries Bridport South would get West Cliff in West Bay and there will be confusion over the Symondsburry parish."

Mr Rickard said that the approach of the boundary consultation is an example of why some people find it hard to engage with politics.

He said: "I just wish someone would sit down and sort all of the boundaries out in one go, rather than in this manner."

■ COUNCILLOR DAVE RICKARD: 'I just want it sorted and for everyone to know where they stand'

by Benjamin Parker

"What we end up with is villages placed together in some district wards but then split up at county council level. British people don't seem to engage with politics and it's not surprising when we have all of this trouble."

"I just want it sorted and for everyone to know where they stand but that never seems to happen – it's a mess."

"The whole point of local councillors is to represent people and if we lose a seat in Bridport then that's just one seat too many to lose."

Following a public consultation earlier this year, the independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England recommended reducing the number of district councillors in West Dorset to 43.

At a full district council meeting last week, West Dorset District Council recommended a different proposal, further reducing the number to 42 seats.

David Tett, district councillor for Bridport South and Bothenhampton, spoke against this plan, stating the "grave concern" that increases in the town's population over time would leave people "inadequately represented."

Robert Gould, leader of the district council, said: "The purpose of the review is to ensure each councillor represents a similar number of electors and that ward boundaries reflect the interests and identities of local communities."

"The district council was also consulted on the plans and councillors put forward proposals to adopt a 42 councillor ward pattern, which would reduce the number of councillors by six."

"After considering all the submissions received, the Local Boundary Commission for England will publish its draft recommendations for changes in February 2014. The public will then have a further opportunity to have their say on the draft proposals in April 2014."

The amount of work councillors undertake in the Bridport South ward is another reason why the number shouldn't be reduced, according to Councillor Ros Kayes.

She said: "I argued strongly at the last meeting that because there is a high level of deprivation and poverty in some parts of Bridport there is a lot of casework for councillors."

"I've seen an increased amount of casework since the recession."

"By changing the boundaries and moving someone from Bridport South will mean the two Bridport South councillors will be overloaded with casework and the councillor left with Bothenhampton will not have as much to do – it's a different sort of area. This could be bad for the people of Bridport."

Despite opposition to the plans, Councillor Frances McKenzie told the View from Bridport that she didn't see this change as a negative.

She said: "Quite frankly I can't argue with the numbers, councillors should try and represent an equal number. I can't say it's a bad thing."

"It will be a long time before the town grows to such an extent that it will cause problems. The fact that it will get bigger should not be a concern."

West Dorset District Council was unable to comment on changes to individual wards.

■ DISTRICT COUNCIL LEADER ROBERT GOULD: 'The purpose of the review is to ensure each councillor represents a similar number of electors.'

Free afternoon parking in town for Christmas

SHOPPERS in Bridport will get the chance to park in the town for free in the run up to Christmas.

The news was announced by Bridport Business, the local Chamber of Trade and Commerce, after a consultation with West Dorset District Council's head of parking, Chris Graves, and has been welcomed by traders in the town.

Karen Hussey, secretary of Bridport Business, said: "It's been really good working with Chris Graves, he is committed to working with towns and helping them solve issues just like this."

"We're delighted to announce the free parking. We hope it will bring more shoppers into town, it's a much more welcoming experience for people to be faced with."

"Previously it has been some car parks and not others so this year we're pleased to say it's a lot less confusing."

Negotiations mean that from Monday, December 9th, the car parks in Wykes Court, East Street, South Street and Rope Walks will be free to park in after 2pm.

The free parking arrangement means that the district council will not make a donation towards the Christmas lights this year.

Richard Batten, owner of Battens Jewellers in South Street, believes this will be more useful than a donation to the lights.

He said: "It's a good idea, anything to bring people in is of use to us. The supermarkets already have the situation sussed. They can offer free parking and then they end up getting the business."

"I think this will help the town more than a donation to the lights; the shops can make their own effort with their window displays and their trees."

Bridport Music's Steph Garner, who owns the South Street shop with her husband, hopes that the news will add to the usually busy Christmas countdown.

She said: "I think that this can encourage people into the town, so it is a welcome move. We hope Bridport has staved off the threat of parking meters for on-street parking and I think the way forward should be keeping parking prices reasonable and providing more spaces."

Councillor Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "We're pleased to be offering free parking in Bridport this December."

"We hope this will encourage shoppers into the town and support local businesses over the festive season."

The chamber will be placing posters around the shops in town in the coming weeks to make people aware of the free parking offer.

XANNE Carey, owner of the Amid Giants & Idols coffee shop in Lyme Regis, was born in Derbyshire but grew up in Singapore. She moved back to the UK as a teenager and has since gradually moved along the south coast.

After visiting Lyme Regis a couple of years ago she fell in love with town and, after spotting the empty shop on her second visit, which now homes her independent coffee shop, she knew it was meant to be.

Xanne is passionate about high quality, speciality grade coffee and her career as a barista has gone from strength to strength. She was recently placed 11th in the UK Barista Championship semi-finals.

■ WHAT did you do before opening Amid Giants & Idols?

Heaps of stuff! I've been a charity events organiser and more recently a teacher, I taught English at GCSE level and also as a foreign language to students from all over the world. I feel I've found my true calling in coffee and am loving the challenge of setting up and developing my own business, it's something I often day dreamed about and now I'm doing it.

■ HOW did you become interested in working as a barista?

When in Australia, I finally found that coffee could be divine - in the UK, my experience of coffee had been pretty poor and I rarely drank the stuff. I began to wonder what it was that made the difference...and there, the flame of passion was ignited.

■ WHY did you decide to open a coffee shop in Lyme Regis?

We arrived for a day trip one crisp, snowy November a couple of years ago and just loved the place. When we saw the shop available on our second visit, it felt like it was meant to be.

■ WHAT do you enjoy about the job?

It's a fascinating area of work and it really plays to my need for perfection - I'm always chasing the perfect coffee. There are so many variables that it becomes quite obsessive. Speciality grade coffee is a really complex product with more flavour notes than you find in wine, every cup should be something to savour. I also love the community aspect of working in speciality coffee, from the other baristas to the wonderful, warm customers.

■ WHAT makes Amid Giants & Idols different to other coffee shops?

We serve speciality grade coffee, in addition to offering some of the worlds finest coffees roasted by the UK's leading micro roasters. We also roast our own range of coffees that change with the seasons. This means there is always something new to try or take home, whether roasted by us or our favourite micro roasters, the coffees on offer are some of the finest available from around the globe and are always roasted to maximise the flavour of the coffee. We think this brings quite a different taste experience to your cup. We've also tried to create a super-comfy space with plenty for customers to absorb themselves in.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

■ YOU recently were placed 11th at the UK Barista Championships semi-finals. What did you have to do in the competition?

You have to make a set number of standard drinks along with your own creative "signature" drink. Each drink is assessed for appearance, flavour and body by four judges. You are also continuously assessed by technical judges and have to give a detailed presentation at the same time. You are judged on your knowledge of coffee, barista skills and of course that all important taste.

■ HOW did feel to get so far in the contest?

It was the best feeling and confirmed that what I do in the shop is worth all the time and effort that goes into it. The competition includes some incredibly talented people, I had a massive learning curve and I am still learning every day.

■ WHAT'S your favourite coffee?

This changes with the seasonal crops. There are a number of seasonal coffee regions across the globe, and every year there will be some stand-out coffees. Right now, I am absolutely loving our latest roast "Jumping Jack". It's an exciting blend of Kenyan, Ethiopian and Costa Rican coffees and I've been serving it in the shop all week.

■ WHAT do you like about Lyme Regis?

I really like the atmosphere and mix of artisan individuals in Lyme; I've met some fascinating people doing incredibly diverse things.

■ WHERE'S your ideal holiday destination?

You mean other than a staycation in Lyme Regis? Well, on my radar at the moment is South America, somewhere like Columbia or Venezuela because both countries look gorgeous. I love South American music and I'm really interested in human history, of which there's plenty.

■ WHICH three people would you invite to your dream dinner party?

Queen Elizabeth I - apparently I'm her first cousin, 13 times removed so it would be great to have her round to mine for dinner. Then, perhaps Stephen Fry because there's no-one better to keep the conversation going while I'm in the kitchen and, finally, Mary Shelly.

Literary festival begins Sunday

LOVERS of literature will be treated in Bridport from this Sunday with the start of Bridport Literary Festival 2013.

The festival, which is returning for a ninth year, offers an eclectic mix of fiction and non-fiction writers, poets and literary pundits at a number of venues across the town. It will run until Sunday, November 17th.

Tanya Bruce-Lockhart, festival director, has described the 2013 event as "more interesting and entertaining than ever before."

In the festival brochure, Ms Bruce-Lockhart wrote: "We hope this season of talks will help banish the dark days of November and prove enlightening."

"Audiences have an opportunity to engage with writers who may encourage discussion on all manner of subjects."

"We are all passionate about literature and want to share this passion with you."

Among those appearing is journalist and broadcaster Kate Adie, who will be telling "the story of the First World War through the eyes of women seeking equality" with her new book, Fighting on the Home Front.

Another respected broadcaster and writer, Melvyn Bragg, is also making an appearance, talking about his new novel Grace and Mary.

Jonathan Aitken, former MP and cabinet minister and author of 12 books, will be appearing as the guest speaker at the George Millar Literary Dinner. Mr Millar has recently released a book chronicling the life of Conservative prime minister Margaret Thatcher.

There are three main venues this year, with the Electric Palace in South Street, The Bull Hotel in East Street and Sladers Yard Gallery and Café in West Bay Road playing host to over 20 events.

Tickets are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre at the Town Hall, East Street, or by calling 01308 424301. If the event is not a sell out tickets will be available on the door.

Council services to be offline this weekend

A NUMBER of online services provided by Dorset County Council will be affected by IT work this weekend.

The firewall protecting the county council's computer network is being upgraded as part of ongoing work to keep its data secure.

There will be no public internet access at Dorset County Council libraries on Saturday, November 9th, and between 7am on Saturday and 7am on Monday, November 11th some of the pages and forms on the dorsetforyou.com web site could be affected.

The online schools admission system form will not be available and the Travel Dorset pages will be running with a slightly reduced service. Anyone who needs to report an urgent road problem can call the emergency out of hours number 0845 0678 999.

Robert Gould, Dorset County Council cabinet member for corporate resources, said: "Our firewall acts as a security barrier around our IT network, preventing unauthorised access to our data. Unfortunately we can't replace such a critical part of our IT infrastructure without affecting members of the public."

"Our current firewalls have reached the end of their life and we absolutely must replace them. Protecting our networks and the data they hold is of paramount importance to us."

Scout Post to expand to Bridport

DORCHESTER'S successful Scout Post is to be extended to the Bridport and Beaminster areas this December.

After 25 years the Dorchester area service, which delivers up to 35,000 cards each Christmas, will be made available in Bridport to service the town, Walditch, Bradpole, West Bay, Bothenhampton and Allington areas.

The new collection and delivery services, run by adult volunteers, will have five yellow post-boxes at convenient locations in and around the town where cards can be posted for half the price of a second class stamp (25p).

Scout Post organisers say their target is to deliver an additional 10,000 cards in and around the Bridport area.

The extension will also mean that those who use the service in and around Dorchester will be able to post cards to friends and family in the Bridport area.

Volunteers will now be needed to collect, sort and deliver in both the Bridport area and in and around Dorchester.

Potential helpers should contact Debbie, Scout Post Coordinator on 01305 852314, or email scoutpost@dwd-scouts.org.uk

One year on... and well rooted

'TO ME beating cancer is not about not dying. It's about living, really living, every moment and every day. But how could I do that? Who could help me stay on track? Throughout my cancer treatment, despite asking and looking, there were no survivor or support groups where I live in West Dorset.'

This is how Sue Rorstad felt when she was diagnosed with cancer.

There was no dedicated cancer care centre in West Dorset to help people take back control of their health and lifestyle.

Nearest to Bridport is The Force in Exeter and the Penny Brohn Centre in Bristol.

There are excellent disease specific groups, usually assisted by Clinical Nurse Specialists, but few are very local and some are quite a distance away in Poole. However, in October 2012 things changed.

Sue explains: "I was very interested to hear about a new group in Bridport called The Living Tree."

She joined and is now a regular at the Friday meetings.

"It's stimulating, cheerful, a lot of fun and very informative. The members would not have come together had it not been for the cancer they have in common. All ages, different backgrounds, different cancers and different beliefs but all there to help each other," said Sue. Initial start-up funding came from Macmillan and there have been many contributors in 2012/13, all instrumental in making The Living Tree an invaluable asset to the community.

These include West Dorset District Council, Dorset Cancer Network, Bridport Carnival, and Brit Valley Rotary.

The Living Tree was granted charitable status in February this year. One year on, the group is well established as a self-help centre for people who have experienced cancer and for their families/carers. Members come from the surrounding areas of West Dorset, East Devon and South Somerset - all are welcome.

Everyone is at various stages in their cancer journeys - some recently diagnosed, others undergoing treatment, some in remission, others post-cancer. The aim of The Living Tree is to offer friendship, creative activities and holistic therapies, relevant diet and lifestyle information for anyone with any cancer.

At the first meeting there were five people. In a year that's grown to over 20 with a larger mailing list of health professionals.

Founder members Jo O'Farrell and Jo Millar, delighted with the success so far, take up the story: "We help people cope with the fear, anxiety, and isolation or stress that cancer can bring by creating a caring, nurturing and helpful environment in which to unwind and share laughter (we do a lot of this!) and we talk about coping strategies."

"We also pool our knowledge and information about services and resources in the locality."

Thanks to many health workers and therapists who have been incredibly generous with their time, The Living Tree has an ongoing programme of speakers on a variety of relevant topics such as complementary therapies, exercise, relaxation, diet and nutrition and creative arts.

Jo continued: "We've had talks and demonstrations on topics as diverse as acupuncture, reflexology, diet and nutrition, homeopathy and we've tried out Qigong, as well as paper crafts, mindfulness, singing and playing the ukulele!"

The Living Tree meets weekly from 2-4:30pm on Friday afternoons, in comfortable surroundings with refreshment facilities, at the Friends Meeting House, South Street, Bridport.

Alcoholics Anonymous Awareness Month

■ THIS month is Alcoholics Anonymous Awareness Month. It is our hope, as Non-Alcoholic Trustees of AA Great Britain, that this letter will change the perception of Alcoholics Anonymous and dispel various myths and prejudices about AA.

AA is a mutual help organisation which has evolved over nearly 80 years. It is based on the collective knowledge of sufferers who have achieved sobriety through sharing their experiences as to how to achieve that recovery.

There is growing scientific awareness showing the effectiveness of introducing patients to AA, and the therapeutic benefits of sustained recovery when patients join AA.

The image of AA in North America appears to be more positive than it is in the Great Britain. However, that is changing - the economic climate is perhaps encouraging more creative solutions to our national drinking problems.

There are many and regular AA meetings throughout GB, the help is free to the sufferer, as well as to the state. AA accepts no external donations. It is entirely self-funding.

The underlying stability of AA is achieved by the recovering alcoholic reaching out to the still suffering drinker; this simple act reinforces his or her own sobriety.

AA is not a religious organisation. There are people from all walks of life and every persuasion. There are people who are atheists, agnostics and others who belong to formalised religions. It does not matter what your beliefs are, nor will anyone try and persuade you to change your beliefs.

The individual's first step is to contact AA - there is a national phone line 0845 769 7555 - and to attend an AA meeting. A member from AA will be willing to have an initial meeting and share his or her experiences of the illness and their recovery.

Contacting AA can be daunting and someone from AA will be willing to help in getting someone, or accompanying them, to their first meeting.

AA started in England in 1947, Scotland in 1948 and Wales in 1951. With decades of collective experience and a world-wide reach, AA is a remarkable survivor and remains highly relevant after all these years.

So if you know of someone whose drinking is causing difficulties in their lives, a first step could be to recommend attending AA. The important message is that people can and do recover from this illness to regain control over their lives.

Back to the 18th century?

■ WHILST the Council Tax in Dorset has remained static, the services provided by Dorset's local councils diminish by the day.

And so in real terms the Council Tax has actually increased, and as Tommy Cooper used to quip, "just like that."

A good example of cuts in services is the decision to shut off the street lighting in Bridport from midnight.

Here we are in effect returning to a situation that existed in 18th century London.

For example, in Westminster, householders were responsible for putting out lamps on dark evenings, sweeping refuse from the streets and repairing the pavements between their houses and the gutter in the middle of the streets.

However, in 1736, the Lighting Act Statute, followed in 1762 by the Westminster Paving Act, replaced these individual obligations, and finance was provided through local rates to provide those services.

The statutes in effect were such a success that they soon covered the whole of the city.

Given present Government policies for cutting public services, it would seem that in Bridport we could well be returning to early 18th century London where local residents will be expected to sweep their streets, dispense of their rubbish and provide their own street lighting.

Of course, such a situation may seem somewhat farfetched, but given that people are now seen as of secondary importance to finance, who knows?

Rumours 'Broadchurch' won't return to West Bay

REPORTS that the second series of award-winning drama Broadchurch will not be filmed in West Dorset are "speculation", according to ITV.

This could mean that the county, and particularly the West Bay area, could see a repeat of the tourism boost it experienced when the first series was filmed in the region.

The television company's comment comes after news sources across the South West reported that Richard Stokes, a producer for the show, said: "It won't be filmed in the same place but it

by Benjamin

will still be called Broadchurch."

Although they haven't confirmed it will be returning to West Dorset, ITV have dismissed reports that it is definitely leaving and have instead said that the writer of the show hasn't given any details about the new series, the location or the filming plans.

A spokesman for ITV told the View from Bridport: "Neither Chris [Chibnall, the show's creator], the production team nor ITV have made any comment about the new series, its content, locations or casting. We're keeping things mysterious, which is fitting for Broadchurch."

The spokesman added that they had been in touch with Mr Stokes, who advised that he did not make the reported comments.

Crime drama Broadchurch, starring David Tennant and Olivia Colman, was a smash hit for ITV, with millions of viewers gripped each week as police hunted for a child killer in a small fictional town.

The possibility of filming returning has been welcomed by traders in West Bay, who have enjoyed the benefits of being featured in a successful production.

Richard Attrill, owner of Harbour News in West Bay, said: "If it doesn't come back it will have an adverse effect on the tourism bubble we experienced at the start of the year.

"We've had a lot of visitors who have come down to West Bay just because of Broadchurch."

"Some people, wherever they are staying in the country, know the show and have made the pilgrimage down here. I'd love to see it return to film back here."

The head chef of the George Hotel, Simon Stanton, believes that a second series could bring even more people into West Bay.

He said: "It if was my choice I would love it to come back; it's been great for the locals here."

"When it started no one knew how big it would become but now so many people know about it there will be a larger number of people visiting. It seems that there are already more people coming to the area, which could be because of Broadchurch."

County council backing for National Adoption Week

DORSET County Council is inviting potential adopters to come forward during a week highlighting the difference adoption can make to the lives of children.

National Adoption Week runs until this Sunday, and the county council is hoping to attract adopters from all sections of society.

According to the council more children than ever before are in need of "stable, loving homes" and they are keen to dispels some common misconceptions about restrictions surrounding adoption.

There is no upper age limit, you can be single and you don't necessarily have to be employed, giving examples of some of the issues which people feel could affect their eligibility as adopters.

The county council has a team of experienced officers who support adopters throughout the process via training, access to support groups and social events.

The council would like to hear from anyone over 21 who feel they can offer a child commitment and stability.

Councillor Rebecca Knox, Dorset County Council's cabinet member for safeguarding and families, said: "It is a sad fact that some children that come into our care are simply unable to return to their birth family because of neglect, abuse or perhaps just because their parents are unable to cope."

"Giving a child a stable and loving home is the best way that we can make a difference to their lives. We're looking for people from all walks of life who feel they can make a real difference and provide loving support."

"Initially, we are simply asking people to come find out more about adoption. If you think you might have what it takes, please pick up the phone or go online. The team can talk you through the process and answer any questions you might have."

For more information visit www.dorsetforyou.com/adoption or call 01305 228200.

Town vines 'thriving'

■ Mark Banham, manager of Palmers Wine Store, with Rebecca Hansford of Furleigh Estate and the "thriving" vines outside the shop

VINES planted outside a Bridport wine shop have produced a bumper crop this year, according to the vineyard that planted them.

Furleigh Estate, an award-winning vineyard and winery based in Salway Ash, have taken cuttings from the crop produced by the entrance to Palmers Wine Store on West Bay Road. The vines were planted at the site earlier this year.

A sign has been erected by both companies to promote what the winery describes as a "bit of Furleigh Estate in the middle of Bridport."

Rebecca Hansford, co-owner of Furleigh Estate, said: "It's been a bumper year and we are now harvesting our grapes."

"I thought I should also check out how these vines are doing. I'm glad to say they are thriving, so much so we even took some cuttings back to the vineyard for testing."

Mark Banham, manager of Palmers Wine Store, is already thinking ahead to stocking the 2013 vintage.

He said: "We are looking forward to tasting the fruits of this year's Furleigh harvest."

"There is a demand for all the Furleigh wines so we look forward to getting the 2013 vintage."

Dorset-style hedgelaying is part of national champs

by Benjamin Parker

DORSET-style hedgelaying has been represented for the first time at the National Hedgelaying Championships after lobbying by a group of local hedgers.

The Dorset Class was included in the competition, now in its 35th year, and attracted six entrants during a day of hedgelaying contests at Waddesdon Manor in Buckinghamshire.

Nigel Dowding, Tim Frampton, Russell Woodham and Kevin Goodfellow, all members of the Melplash Agricultural Society, have been credited for getting the Dorset style into the national competition.

Tim Frampton, chairman of the hedgelaying and ploughing section of the Melplash Agricultural Society, said: "It's important that the Dorset style is recognised."

"The way we do it makes Dorset and Devon unique – although even between those two there are differences."

"The whole day went really well, I think it was a real eye-opener to different styles and it was great to see loads of spectators there."

"I was disappointed not to have come away with a prize but it makes me want to try harder for next year."

Melplash Agricultural Society organise an annual hedgelaying match in Dorset as well as running training sessions to teach the Dorset style of hedgelaying.

Alongside Dorset, the other regions competing included Wales, the Midlands, Devon, North Somerset, Derbyshire and Lancashire.

The 100 hedgers who took part had to lay a hedge that measured 10 metres, made up of 90 per cent maple and 10 per cent hawthorn.

Kevon Rendell and Henry Selway judged the Dorset category, with Jon Stockwell of Yarcombe, Devon, acting as steward.

Ed Goodfellow was named the Dorset winner, with Russell Woodham in second place and Kevin Goodfellow coming third.

Mr Rendell said: "The Dorset-style hedgelaying, which uses no crooks, no string or wire, caused a lot of interest and many questions were asked about the system and the style."

A meeting will be arranged in April next year to discuss and formalise future plans for Dorset hedgelaying, and Mr Rendell has agreed with the National Hedgelaying Society that he will champion the style.

Anyone interesting in knowing more about Dorset hedgelaying can contact Kevon Rendell on 01308 862538.

Frighthening fun at forest school as

■ MARVELLOUS MEDICINE: Ben Pike made his very own magical potion

CHILDREN enjoyed a morning of witchcraft and wizardry during a spooky Forest School session on Friday of last week.

Held at the discovery area at Thorner's Primary School, children aged up to five-years-old enjoyed two hours getting back to nature with a Halloween twist. The morning began with the children enjoying a story and a hot chocolate before starting their activities, which on this occasion included wand making and potion brewing.

By Benjamin Parker

Organised by Dorset Forest School, each session aims to build the confidence of the children by teaching them in a woodland environment.

Forest School leader Emily Gainsford believes that teaching young people in such a way gives them a good understanding of the world around them.

She said: "Teaching children outdoors means you can teach them most things but in a natural environment."

"When they learn about things like the uses of wood and timber they grow up thinking and caring about the environment."

"At the young, pre-school age it's about getting out and having fun – the children learn without realising it. They can build self-confidence by taking part in activities that they can successfully do. When I plan the sessions I link it to the national curriculum."

Parents are encouraged to get involved with the Forest School activities, which Ms Gainsford explains can be less intimidating than some mother and toddler groups, especially for fathers.

She said: "I think when you look at our society as adult we're all stressed and all working hard. The best way to relax is to go to the beach or go on a walk and that's what the Forest School can do for both adults and children."

Pauline Clack, who attended the session with her son James, said: "James has been here before and he loves it, he loves exploring. It's quite a unique way of learning, with all of the different activities then sitting around the campfire at the end."

"The Forest School gets the imagination flowing and is so creative."

Dorset NHS chief exec steps down

THE chief executive of a Dorset health service provider has stepped down from the post with immediate effect.

Paul Sly has left the position within Dorset HealthCare University NHS Foundation Trust, a post he held since early 2012.

Sir David Henshaw, interim chairman at Dorset HealthCare, thanked Mr Sly for his work within the organisation.

He said: "Paul has been chief executive since February 2012 and led the trust through a very difficult period with the coming together of the predecessor organisations. He has been a highly respected colleague with total commitment to the trust and the people it serves and has made a major contribution on a range of areas.

"On behalf of the trust board I would like to thank Paul for all that he has done in his time with Dorset HealthCare."

Mr Sly will be replaced by interim chief executive Ron Shields.

Mr Henshaw added: "Ron brings a wealth of leadership experience in the NHS, with more than 23 years as a director in acute, community and mental health trusts, 14 of which have been as chief executive. His experience includes managing large scale service redesign and organisational mergers.

"His priority will be to lead the development of a clear and compelling strategy for all of our services and to work with frontline clinicians to provide assurance for patients, staff and our regulators about the quality of the services we deliver for the people of Dorset."

Dorset HealthCare provides community health services, mental health, learning disability, addictions, community brain injury, community dental, and some primary care services, across Dorset.

The community services it provides includes school nursing, end of life care, sexual health promotion, safeguarding of children, breastfeeding support services and the running of Dorset's 11 community hospitals.

Magna's big clean-up

THE problem of litter on housing estates in Dorset is being addressed by Magna Housing Association in an effort to improve the service it delivers.

Community caretakers for Magna, which lets over 6,000 homes in Dorset and the South West, will now be able to clean the streets with a new road sweeper, described by Magna as a "big green cleaning machine."

Funding for this new machine came from Magna's community initiative fund, which each year allocates £120,000 in an attempt to improve the area for its residents.

Jez Morris, head of housing at Magna Housing Association, said: "Residents keep telling us that litter is a problem.

"We're always trying to improve our services and having this new sweeper will make really light work of keeping the estates clean."

Magna resident Rosemary Robinson, who is a member of the Community Initiative Forum that meets to discuss which projects Magna can support, said: "This road sweeper was well worth the expenditure from the fund.

"It will make a huge difference to the way Magna residents feel about the area around their homes."

Members of the Community Initiative Forum and Magna staff with the new road sweeper

Halloween: no tricks, plenty of treats...

THE behaviour of young people in Beaminster and Bridport has been praised by a Bridport police after an almost incident-free Halloween celebration.

Only one call was received by Bridport police station relating to Halloween anti-social behaviour, when a large group of young people in the Dibden View area were making a lot of noise on their way home. The group was good natured and dispersed when spoken to by officers, according to police.

Beaminster also experienced an evening without any major incidents, with PCSO John Burton describing it as "trouble free."

He said: "A big thank you to all the young people who heeded the advice given to have fun but respect others in our communities on Halloween.

"As far as I can tell our Safer Neighbourhood Teams' efforts the week before, distributing door posters for persons not wishing to be called on by trick or treaters, and our close liaison with the supermarkets and local shops to ensure items such as flour and eggs were limited to adult purchasers only certainly paid off."

Have your say

THE Jurassic Coast Partnership would like to hear from local people about their views on how the World Heritage Site, which extends 95 miles from Exmouth to Studland, should be looked after.

The site is managed through a partnership which includes Dorset County Council and Devon County Councils. A management plan sets out details of how the site is looked after and what activities have been agreed.

The plan is reviewed every five years to keep it up to date and relevant. The opinions of local people are being sought on the new draft plan.

Sam Rose, Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site Manager said: "This plan is in draft form so that anyone with an interest in the Jurassic Coast can have a say in its management, and we would like to hear from you."

The plan is available online at <http://jurassiccoast.org/plan>, in libraries museums and visitor centres along the coastline.

A printed version is available on request - call 01305 221000 and ask for the Jurassic Coast Team. The consultation closes on Monday, December 30th.

ABOUT MOVEMBER

DURING November each year, Movember is responsible for the sprouting of millions of moustaches around the world. With their "Mo's" men raise vital funds and awareness for prostate and testicular cancer and mental health. As an independent global charity, Movember's vision is to have an everlasting impact on the face of men's health.

HOW IT WORKS

MOVEMBER challenges men to grow a moustache for the 30-days of November, thereby changing their appearance and the face of men's health.

In October, Mo Bros sign up at Movember.com, and on the 1st of Movember, with a clean-shaven face, start their Mo growing journey.

Then for the entire month, these selfless and generous men known as Mo Bros, effectively become walking, talking billboards for 30 days. Through their growing efforts they raise awareness for the often ignored issues of men's health, by prompting conversations wherever they go.

Another crucial part of being a Mo Bro is to raise funds for men's health. Men donate their face, and much like taking part in a run or a walk for charity, ask their family and friends to sponsor their efforts.

Movember's not just for men. The women of Movember, are known as Mo Sistas. They play a vital role in the success of Movember by supporting and encouraging the men in their life to get involved. Mo Sistas also get involved by signing up at Movember.com, and participate by raising funds and awareness themselves. Essentially, Mo Sistas do everything that Mo Bros do, without a Mo.

At the end of the month, Mo Bros and Mo Sistas celebrate their Movember journey by throwing their own MOVEMBER PARTIES or attending one of the official GALA PARTÉS held around the world.

THE MOVEMBER EFFECT

MOVEMBER supports world class men's health programmes that combat prostate and testicular cancer and mental health challenges. These programmes, directed by the Movember Foundation, are focused on awareness and education, living with and beyond cancer, staying mentally healthy, living with and beyond mental illness and research to achieve our vision of an everlasting impact on the face of men's health.

GET INVOLVED MO SISTAS

NEVER a truer word was spoken, when it was said that behind every great man, stands a great woman. Whilst a Mo Bro may grow, it is the Mo Sista that is often the driving force, first planting the seed (of an idea) and then carefully working away behind the scenes of fine moustachery for the 30 days of Movember.

A Mo Sista is essentially a woman who loves a Mo. An individual that is dedicated to supporting the Mo Bros in her life through their moustache growing journey; whether it be a friend, colleague, family member, partner or boyfriend. These inspirational women are committed to raising awareness of men's health issues and much needed funds for men's health along the way.

At Movember we acknowledge the Mo Sista hood and celebrate their role as purveyors of fine moustaches.

'Barn find' Mini makes £8,250

BUSBY Auctioneers and Valuers' saleroom was well attended by local people for last month's car sale. There was a good atmosphere throughout the auction and a number of the vehicles fetched some very good prices. A completely authentic 'barn find' Austin Cooper Mini, pictured above, from 1963 reached an amazing price of £8,250 plus 10 per cent buyer's premium (against an estimate of £4,000 - £6,000) and sold to a bidder in the room on the day. A 1977 metallic red Porsche 911 Carrera 3.0 Sport Coupe RHD was the star deal of the day; again, selling to a bidder in the room, it made £15,000 at the fall of the hammer. There were some interesting bits of automobilia that gathered interest during the sale - an enamel BP 'Buy from the Pump' sign made £280 and an original Michelin tyre compressor dating back to the 1920s realised £600 plus the premium. The next sale of classic and collectable cars, motorcycles and automobilia is on March 22nd 2014.

War poetry for Remembrance Day

ON MONDAY, November 11th at 11am the maroon will go off in Bridport Town - two minutes later it will sound again.

The audience in the Marlow Theatre at Bridport Arts Centre will stand together to respect the passing of so many civilians and soldiers in wars over the past 100 years.

Their shared silence will be followed by poems and songs that will reflect the impact wars have had on us all since 1914.

David Bushrod, a local poet will read one of his own, 'Remembrance Day' and poems by Wilfred Owen and Siegfried Sassoon, including 'Dulce Et Decorum Est'.

Christine Prideaux has chosen a selection including Carol Anne Duffy's wonderful response to this - 'The Last Post'.

To lighten the mood and reflect on the civilian's life here in West Dorset during the World War II, she will read a pair of poems by Joan Robins, a local poet who writes about wartime in Morecombelake with blackout curtains and the many uses of carrots!

Margie Barbour will share poems from more recent wars as well as 'High Flight,' chosen as her uncle - who she never knew - was a pilot killed in the early days of the war.

Margie said: "So many of us have connections to the wars the British have been involved in during the last 100 years.

"Relatives who were killed, family members who were conscientious objectors or people who lived through them here in Britain - and the poems we have chosen express the powerful feelings these conflicts have evoked."

Emily Hicks will be joining the poetry readers to sing some beautiful songs reflecting upon the emotions of wartime, including 'If You Were The Only Boy In The World' and 'Roses of Picardy'.

White poppies from the Peace Pledge Union will be available at the door on the day and the café will be open especially for the performance.

Tickets at £5 or £4 for concessions with profits going to Help for Heroes are available from the Bridport Arts Centre (01308 424204) or their website at www.bridport-arts.com

Thieves target Morrisons customers

POLICE in Bridport have reported a spate of thefts over lunchtime last Thursday

During a three hour period on Halloween, customers at the Morrisons store in West Bay Road reported three separate incidents.

Two shoppers had their purses taken from bags which had been left in their trolleys, while a third victim had their bag stolen from the in-store café as they had lunch.

A statement from Bridport police said: "Please ensure you take the security of your personal belongings in to account wherever you go shopping. Never leave bags openly on display on your shopping trolley.

"Consider using a purse alarm, these make great gifts for relatives and friends and can be obtained from Bridport Crime Prevention Panel for a small charge."

The Bridport branch of Morrisons was also a victim of crime during this period, as thieves drove off without paying for fuel.

A number of incidents took place that night including a break-in in Chancery Lane. Entry was forced into the manager's office at Chancery House and a quantity of cash was stolen sometime between 5pm on Thursday, October 31, and 8:30am on Friday, November 1st.

Anyone with information about the break-in can call non-emergency number 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, quoting crime reference C:13:D:04 5799.

Members of Woman's Action Network Dorset show off some items purchased at a previous frock market

Frock market this weekend

A DORSET woman's group is offering residents the chance to refresh their wardrobes and help them raise funds at a market on Saturday (November 9th).

Women's Action Network Dorset (WAND), a voluntary body offering support to Dorset women, is organising the seventh frock market event, hoping to attract people selling clothes, as well as shoppers looking to buy, with tea, coffee and cakes also available. WAND will be acting as a dress agency, taking 30 per cent commission on sales of clothes which they plan to put towards the running of Dorset Woman's Day next year, which is due to take place on Saturday, March 1st.

Sue Bickle, chairman of Woman Action Network Dorset, said: "Our frock markets are a great opportunity to sell the clothes that are stuck at the back of your wardrobe and pick up something new to you. It's a fun event and we're also having a craft fair - come along to grab a present or just treat yourself."

Open between 10am and 2pm, the frock market is being held at South Walks House in Dorchester.

To obtain a sellers pack email wand-dorset@gmail.com or call 01305 252204.

Countdown to Bridport panto

BRIDPORT Pantomime Players have begun rehearsals for their 49th production - 'Sleeping Beauty' - which will be performed at the Electric Palace next February.

Already, local schools Symondsburys, St Mary's and Loders have booked their place for the eagerly awaited production which hasn't been tackled by the players since 1992. St Mary's pupils are also being treated to a special assembly by two of the leading characters.

After the success of last year's competition to design the front cover of the programme for 'Aladdin' (won by Ellie Wellman of Bridport Primary School) the group is once again looking for a budding young artist to design their front cover for 'Sleeping Beauty'.

Entrants must be aged 7-11 and all entries must be handed in to Bridport Tourist Information Centre by the closing date of Friday, December 20th.

There's only a few things that need be included; the title 'Sleeping Beauty', the price of £1 and the entrants name clearly displayed on the front in one of the bottom corners - the rest is up to you to make it as colourful and stand out as possible!

There are two adult and two children's tickets up for grabs by the winning designer so get creative! Please put the entrants name, age and contact details clearly on the back of the design.

Casting for the production has been finalised and is as follows: King Cactus - Roy Bowskill, Queen Marigold - Jess Ives, Princess Rose - Emily Deer, Prince Alexis - Amy Day, Nurse Dottie Dettol - Anthony Steventon, Muddles - Ziggy Gray, Fetch - Sue Farrant, Carrie - Tracy Cadden, Good Fairy Lilac - Teresa Grinter, Bad Witch Hazel - Amy Wheatley.

Any groups wishing to buy their tickets in advance of the box office opening can email p.rose.pitcher@bt-internet.com or call 01308 423366 for a booking form to be completed by December 31st.

Any organisation, group, friends or family purchasing ten tickets or more for the same performance and sitting together gets to enjoy a 10 per cent discount.

A.G. Down funeral directors is named among country's best

A BRIDPORT funeral directors has been named one of the best in the country by an independent guide for the bereaved.

A.G. Down, in South Street, is described in the Good Funeral Guide as having "all the hallmarks of an extremely well-run business with a very big heart," and is commended for its transparent pricing structure and approach. The sister business based in Axminster, W.G. Potter, has also been recognised by the guide.

Funeral directors Julian and

Karen Hussey said: "We are incredibly proud to have been received this accreditation to further the dignified, professional and caring service we offer families, which also acknowledges the dedication of our team."

Each of the funeral homes included in the Good Funeral Guide are assessed according to strict criteria, with a focus on the quality of the experience they offer to bereaved people.

A.G. Down was inspected to ensure that clients are treated with courtesy, offered a range of choices, and empowered to play whatever part they want in creating a send-off for the recently deceased.

As part of the accreditation process time the company's behind the scenes work was also assessed to ascertain that those who have died are treated with respect. Charles Cowling, author of the guide, said that it can be difficult choosing a funeral director because they can all look the same but praised the "outstanding" work of some.

He said: "The team are unsung heroes doing a magnificent job, and the people of Bridport, Axminster and the surrounding areas deserve to know this."

"Bereaved people need to do their very best for their loved one. They deserve the very best funeral director."

The Good Funeral Guide is independent of the funeral industry. As well as offering information to the bereaved it supports and represents the interests of dying and bereaved people living in the UK.

More information can be found at www.goodfuneralguide.co.uk

District council launches new street art project

A PROJECT encouraging people to create street art is set to begin in Bridport this month.

Councillor Gillian Summers, chairman of West Dorset District Council, has announced the 'Good Graffiti' project, which aims to reduce vandalism and damage caused by graffiti.

Ms Summers told the View from that they hope to uncover some hidden talent across the towns.

She said: "This is an exciting project which we hope will develop over time and help find those with talent."

"The people we're trying to attract are those who maybe aren't engaging with a youth clubs or other groups and have been involved with vandalism - this project gives them a chance to express themselves in an acceptable place."

Blank walls will be set up displaying the project's logo, showing where people can paint.

The organisers are keeping the location secret until the launch, but Ms Summers said that they have been offered some space on St Michael's Trading Estate.

Work created during this project, which will run simultaneously in Sherborne and Dorchester, will be photographed and published online as part of a competition, with prizes for the best pieces of work to be awarded at a ceremony after the project ends in April 2014.

The venture involves no forms to fill out, no cost to enter and no age limit, said Ms Summers.

The sites will be announced via the Good Graffiti social media sites.

Fireworks postponed to this weekend

BRIDPORT'S annual fireworks display did not take place on Saturday, after being postponed due to forecasted strong winds.

Bridport Round Table, organisers of the town's display, took the decision on Friday to move the event to Saturday, November 9th, after being advised by the landowners at Bridport Leisure Centre of health and safety considerations.

This news came as it was announced that the Charmouth fireworks and bonfire on the beach was postponed until Saturday, with the Freshwater Beach fireworks display being moved to Friday, November 8th at 9pm.

Andy Sherring, chairman of Bridport Round Table, said: "Basically we were told there would be 30 to 45 miles per hour winds coming in a westerly direction, so we made the decision on Friday afternoon to move it to the next weekend.

"The problems were with the large mortars we'd want to use for the display, they would be blowing towards Palmers Brewery, which has a thatched roof, so we were advised by the actual landlords at the leisure centre it would not be a good idea to go ahead. This was the right decision because the winds were very strong."

"We have our fingers crossed for good weather next weekend. There are some family tickets out there which are still valid, or people can just rock up and buy tickets on the night."

The Bridport Leisure Centre location and the times - 6.30pm for an 8pm fireworks display - would remain the same, said Mr Sherring.

THE Gilded Teapot, Dorchester's very own loose leaf tea specialists since 2010, launch their new tea Tasting Parlour in The Buttermarket, Poundbury this November.

"I can't believe it has been three years since we found our home in Tudor Arcade's old tobacconists. Time has flown by. Since 2010 we have been personally sourcing, selecting and hand blending the finest loose leaf and single estate teas from around the globe. We have built wonderful relationships with artisan producers and importers to shine a light on some of the world's finest unsung tea gardens.

"One thing I have always dreamed of is having a space for a calm, relaxing tea sanctuary where lovers of tea could sit at a tasting table and explore the different teas and infusions with us, as well as being able to take them home and enjoy. We had been looking for the right place for over a year, and I'm thrilled to say that we have finally found it" – Jo Davies, Gilded Teapot founder

The Buttermarket Tea Parlour will be a true tea haven. As well as having a selection of more than one hundred fine loose leaf teas and infusions to choose from, there will be a reclaimed tasting table to sample your infusions, complete with the finest tea ware and paraphernalia from around the world – including local artisans and craftspeople from around southern England -- to bring out the very best from your tea leaves. And with Christmas just around the corner, tea gifts and hampers provide wonderful inspiration for presents. Jo recommends always taking a calm moment of self indulgence in the midst of any festive frenzy, "our Cloud Tea paired with a warm mince pie never goes amiss."

The Gilded Teapot Tea Tasting Parlour will open its doors on Saturday 23rd November 2013 at 10am, with tea treats and offers throughout the day.

SUSAN GALE

Change for the better with Hypnotherapy

FEELING bad? Feeling trapped by unwanted habits, anxieties or old hurts? With the right help, your mind can set you free. And much more easily than you might have thought possible.

You probably already know how powerful your subconscious mind can be when it's repeating old habits even though you don't want it to. So imagine that much power working for you in a good way instead.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, uses Hypnotherapy to help you break out of the rut and change old negatives to new positives.

She takes a very practical, down to earth approach. And her long experience means she can tailor the therapy to your particular needs.

Don't "learn to live with it" – learn to live without it. Make the most of yourself. Make the most of your life.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people clear many different problems. Her experience can help you break free. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone her on 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

WISE OWL TOYS

A wise choice for fun & educational play!

WISE Owl Toys is family-run by David and Lesley James. It is an independent toyshop which places customer service and expert knowledge as their main priority. They seek to offer different, inspiring and fun toys and games that also have an educational aspect.

This Christmas they continue to have a great choice of traditional toys such as Farms, Castles and Dolls' Houses and you can reserve any product to avoid missing out at Christmas. They also stock a large range of craft and science based toys.

The Dorchester shop has probably the largest selection of Playmobil, Sylvanian Families, Schleich and Papo in the area, with the new Playmobil Dinosaurs, Western and Hotel ranges on display.

David and Lesley look forward to welcoming new and existing customers to their wonderful shop in Hardy's Arcade, Dorchester in the run up to Christmas.

THE MEWS

The MEWS Dorchester promotes local talent

AT The MEWS Dorchester this month we are taking the opportunity to beat the drum for Dorset talent. In store at the moment are some exceptional glass items by William Walker including one of his landscape bowls depicting Kimmeridge Bay. If you prefer pottery there is a vase by Poole artist Zedenka Ralph, and for the watch fans the new watch range by De Maurier.

The Mews continues to have interesting items in stock from an early Michael Schumacher Omega Speedmaster with a vibrant yellow dial, to a stunning 4.65 carat Emerald and diamond ring in 18ct white gold.

Not everything in the shop is expensive, quality items can be bought from as little as £10 for a glass paperweight, £25 for a Deco Royal Doulton trio, or £75 gets you a 1930s painting on silk.

Whatever it is that you like or collect you might just find it in The MEWS, Trinity Street, Dorchester.

Night of Hollywood razzmatazz comes to Bridport

A GLITZY night of Hollywood glamour came to Bridport with an evening dance organised by Strictly Bridport.

The event, with a theme of Tinseltown stars and starlets, attracted over 30 dancers to the church hall in South Street.

Guests arrived on a red carpet, and those who came in fancy dress took part in the best-dressed competition, with the winners picking up an award for best costume.

Sarah Cozens was named best female for her Lara

Croft outfit from the Tomb Raider series of films and games, and Chris Taylor was named best male with his Johnny Depp-inspired Mad Hatter outfit from Tim Burton's Alice in Wonderland.

Strictly Bridport was founded by a group of friends who enjoyed ballroom dancing.

Other events they have organised include a Valentine's Day dance, a masked ball, and a dance for the Queen's Jubilee.

John Lipscombe, one of the founders, said: "It was an excellent night and we're already looking forward to our next event.

"What was nice was that all of the music was from films and people made attempts to guess the movie, right back to the 1930s with Fred Astaire films.

"It's not a money making event, it's just a lot of fun and a great way of getting people dancing."

PCC welcomes new code

POLICE and Crime Commissioner for Dorset, Martyn Underhill, has welcomed the government's new Victims Code and is planning a new system of help for crime victims in the county.

It will ensure that victims are entitled for the first time to read their Victim Personal Statement in court.

The judge will then take this in to account when determining the sentence.

Mr Underhill said: "It is important that victims of crime receive a bespoke service, tailored to their individual needs. That is why I am launching the Dorset Victims Bureau on November 19th.

"Victims are at the heart of my work and I will always put them first. The Dorset Victim's Bureau is just one of only two in England and Wales.

"By next year the bureau will grow into the first multi-agency victim's service in the country, encompassing all of the Criminal Justice Agencies, meaning that victims will be updated and supported as they travel the whole criminal justice journey.

"The bureau next year will also assist those victims who, for various reasons, do not pick up the phone to report their crime to the police.

"I have also introduced Victim Forums in Dorset, so that we can learn from people's experiences.

"I want to give victims a voice so I can hear about their journey and find out how to meet their needs."

Mr Underhill's office is also working on a new victim's web site for Dorset which will signpost victims to relevant partners and agencies for their particular crime, and offer advice.

John Lipscombe, right, presents 'Oscars' to Chris Taylor and Sarah Cozens after they won the best dressed competition at Strictly Bridport's Hollywood Ball

Christmas cards on sale at the Tourist Information Centre

CHARITY Christmas cards which could benefit local good causes are now available to buy from Bridport Tourist Information Centre.

The West Dorset District Council-run centre is selling cards from national charity network Cards for Good Causes, which pays the participating charities at least 70p per pound, with the remainder covering the network's running costs.

Dorset-based Julia's House is one charity that could benefit, along with UK-wide organisations including Cancer Research UK and Action for Children.

Councillor Robert Gould, leader of West Dorset District Council, said: "It's that time of year again where people are getting ready for the festive period. Why not visit one of our tourist information centres and stock up on Christmas cards. Sales from the cards will help out some fantastic charities."

Evergreen Renewable Energy

Take Control of Your Energy Bills

ENERGY prices have risen by 160% in the last decade (BBC Watchdog report), and look like they will continue to do so. We are all at the mercy of these price rises, but there are measures you can take to lessen their impact on your family budget.

Evergreen have been helping customers to take control over how much energy they use and how much they need to buy. We can advise on heating and lighting, supply and fit low energy light fittings and install renewable energy systems such as Solar PV. Evergreen can help you save on your energy bills and earn an income from government backed schemes, such as the Feed in Tariff, (FIT).

Many people think they have 'missed the boat' when it comes to installing Solar PV panels. They have heard that the Feed in Tariff rate has dropped so much that it's just not worth it any more. This is NOT true. Yes, the FIT has been cut, but the cost of installing a Solar PV system has also dropped enormously. Installing a Solar PV system will cut your electricity bills and generate a tax free, index linked income. You get paid for generating energy which is then FREE for you to use. Rates of return of over 12% are common.

Call or email to arrange a no-obligation site survey. An engineer, not a salesman, will call and assess your needs and the suitability of your property. Visit our website www.evergreendeal.co.uk for more information.

Based in Lyme Regis, we pride ourselves on our excellent customer service and growing reputation. We are NICEIC registered electricians; Green Deal and MCS approved installers, and are members of Dorset County Councils 'Buy with Confidence' scheme. We have also recently been awarded the government endorsed 'Trustmark'. It is our company aim to help customers reduce their bills and their carbon footprint.

As qualified electricians, Evergreen Energy can undertake all domestic and commercial electrical work, including new builds, rewires, alterations, inspection and testing, landlord certificates, and PAT testing. Call or email for more information.

TOP FOLK DUO AT DORCHESTER ARTS CENTRE

Husband and wife Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman to play next week

WINNERS of Best Duo at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards 2013, Dartmoor-based couple Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman have been the lynchpins of the UK's burgeoning folk-acoustic revival over the last two decades.

This tour celebrates the release of their debut CD Hidden People, a superbly crafted album that includes eight self-penned songs, one traditional arrangement and a poignant cover version.

With Kathryn's sublime voice and effortless delivery and Sean's mastery guitar arrangements, this is one the most eagerly awaited modern folk albums of the year and their visit to the Arts Centre will showcase their equally impressive talent for live performance.

Kathryn Roberts and Sean Lakeman play at Dorchester Arts Centre on Thursday, November 14th at 8pm. Doors and bar open 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £13, or £11 members and concessions and can be booked online at www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or by calling 01305 266926.

WILLE AND THE BANDITS IN BRIDPORT

Group have toured with Status Quo and opened for Deep Purple

ACCLAIMED rockers Wille and the Bandits are headed to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 9th, 8pm

Their music covers a wide range of genres from rock to world music to blues and roots. With the versatility of Wille's lap steel and guitar playing, the rhythmic diversity of percussionist Andrew Naumann and the sonic range of Matt Brooks' upright bass and six string electric bass, they always keep audiences guessing.

They have recorded two critically acclaimed albums, 'New Breed' (2010), 'Break-free' (2012), opened for Joe Bonamassa, Deep Purple, The John Butler Trio, and completed two tours with Status Quo... The band have received critical acclaim and a growing loyal fan base wherever they have performed.

The Story of Wille & the Bandits began upon Wille's decision to leave for Australia (his birth place) after he finished school in the UK, knowing his way around a guitar and being able to sing a little he embarked on a mission to play his way by busking. Skip forwards five years and Wille is now considered one of Europe's finest Slide guitar players. Wille & the Bandits are on a journey, which has so far been miraculous. All achieved through hard work and a true passion for making music.

Tickets are £7 in advance by calling 01308 424204 or visiting www.bridport-arts.com, or £9 on the door.

LAST SHOW OF 2013 FOR THE BAC COMEDY CAFÉ

RIISING star Ben Van der Velde will be bringing his unique brand of high energy stand up to the last Comedy Café of the year this month.

Jewish Georgie funnyman Ben Van Der Velde will be headlining the Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café next Friday, November 15th.

Despite his tender age Ben has been wowing audiences for five years and was crowned London's Comedy Café New Act of the Year in 2011. He then caught the eye of industry bigwigs while hosting the infamous Just the Tonic's Big Value Comedy Showcase at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2012 and has since worked alongside some of the biggest names in stand up.

Ben is a self-confessed spreader of 'Joy and Nonsense', renowned for his lightning fast audience interaction, and is sure to leave the Bridport crowd with a smile on their faces.

Joining Ben on the line up will be the club's resident MC Tom Glover and a full line up of support acts.

Tom himself has a growing reputation as an MC and is now a regular compere at a number of clubs in the south west.

This year Tom has supported Milton Jones and Carl Donnelly and opened the Comedy Tent at Newquay's Boardmasters festival.

This will be the last comedy café night of 2013 before the club takes a break over Christmas.

This month's gig will be on at 8pm on Friday, November 15th. Tickets are £7 adults/£5 concessions and available from the arts centre box office on 01308 424204.

LIGHTNING WIT | Headliner Ben Van Der Velde will be entertaining the crowd with his comic musings

Games to play with your Doctor

MEDICINE is jolly serious, life and death, pain and suffering, pills and needles. But wouldn't a trip to the doctor be much more fun if it was a game?

In his brand new show, Dr Phil – a campaigning journalist and the first comic to have played a public inquiry – turns medicine into a succession of games to play with your doctor. Ever wanted to know why a doctor does that to you? Dr Phil spills the beans on medicine's guilty secrets and teaches you how to beat doctors at their own game. Or at least escape with a score draw.

Phil Hammond is a GP turned hospital doctor, writer, broadcaster and comedian. He has been Private Eye's medical correspondent for over 20 years and has appeared on Have I Got News for You, The News Quiz, The Now Show, The One Show and Countdown. In 2013, he cured the entire nation on BBC1's Long Live Britain.

Dr Phil Hammond brings his show, 'Games to Play with your Doctor' to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 16th, 8pm. Tickets cost £15 (full) and £13 concessions. The Marine Theatre is happy to offer all NHS staff tickets at the concessionary rate for this event.

To book visit www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS CRAFT AND GOURMET FOOD SHOW

The perfect place to start your Christmas shopping and a fun day out for the whole family

THE ever popular Annual Christmas Craft and Gourmet Food Show is now in its 27th year and, with over 70 stands, will again be showcasing the very best in West Country crafts and gourmet foods.

Visitors are able to taste and purchase a wonderful variety of locally produced gourmet foods. From olives to oils, cakes to coffees, beers to baklava, sea salt to shellfish, Spanish produce to sweets, preserves to pan-cakes, puddings to pies, tarts to tea and a host of food accessories including amazing knife sharpeners, graters and cheeseboards. There really is something for everyone.

As usual we have a wonderful selection of high quality crafts ideal for that special individual Christmas present - including candles, cosmetics, pottery, pictures, bags, books, toys, treasure trails, jumpers, jewellery, glassware and glitz - there really is something for everyone.

Come early and stay all day. Take time to browse the wonderful stands in the morning; enjoy lunch from the large selection of foods available in the Gourmet Food Hall and outside; then how about an Italian Latte or Cappuccino before more shopping.... There is so much to see and do.

The show takes over the whole ground floor of the beautiful Kingston Maurward House which is situated 2 miles east of Dorchester just off the A35.

We will again be holding a prize draw, all proceeds from which will go to our chosen charity this year which is the Kingfisher Children's ward at Dorset County Hospital. Please come along and give generously to this great cause.

The Annual Christmas Craft and Gourmet Food Show takes place at Kingston Maurward House, Dorchester, on November 9th and 10th from 10am-5pm both days.

Admission prices remain the same as last year.: Adults £2.50; concessions £2.00; and children under 16 are free.

For more information please contact the organiser on 07519760215.

Make perfect mince pies

THIS crumbly, fruity mince pie recipe is a Christmas classic. Serve warm with lashings of brandy butter.

INGREDIENTS

- |                                     |                                    |
|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| . 350g/12oz high quality mincemeat, | . 75g/2¾oz ground almonds          |
| preferably homemade                 | . 125g/4½oz unsalted butter, diced |
| . 200g/7oz plain flour, sifted      | . 1 large free-range egg, beaten   |
| . 40g/1½oz golden caster sugar      | . milk, to glaze                   |

PREPARATION

1. Lightly butter a 12-hole pie or patty tin. Tip the mincemeat into a bowl and stir so that the liquid is evenly distributed.
2. Place the flour, sugar, almonds and butter in a food processor and process briefly until resembling bread crumbs, then slowly add the egg through the feeder tube. (Or rub the butter into the dry ingredients by hand and stir in the egg.)
3. Bring the mixture together with your hands, wrap in clingfilm and chill for an hour or so. Thinly roll out the
4. Cut out another 12 slightly smaller discs and use to cover the mincemeat. Press the edges together to seal. Make a small slit in the top of each, then brush lightly with milk. Chill for about 30 minutes. Meanwhile, pre heat the oven to 200C/400F/Gas 6.
5. Bake the pies for 20 minutes until golden brown. Remove to a wire rack and serve warm.

Christmas Market to celebrate the completion of major renovations to Manor Yard

SYMONDSBURY Estate are holding a Christmas Market at Manor Yard on Thursday, November 28th from 2pm until 8pm. Over 60 stalls will be offering a fabulous array of Christmas Gifts, Local Produce, Cakes, Hand made Chocolates, Jewellery, Roasted Chestnuts along with Santa's Grotto and local Carol Singers. The opening of our new café "Symondsburys Kitchen" will coincide with the Christmas Market.

Just over two years ago Manor Yard was a somewhat dishevelled Grade II listed 18th Century stables and barn in the centre of the village of Symondsburys. Now after major renovation it has been transformed into a stunning and magical venue along with a café. We welcome everybody to come and join us at the first Christmas Market, which promises to be a day to remember!

Manor Yard is set to be the hub of the village and along with the Tithe Barn will provide a unique and charming venue for all occasions including markets, fairs, exhibitions, weddings, corporate and local community events.

One of the outhouses has been renovated into a café. The Christmas Market will double up as the opening of "Symondsburys Kitchen" where we will offer delicious home cooked meals, cakes and refreshments. The main menu and a separate festive season menu will be released within the next week or so.

"We are very excited to be at the stage of planning our first market at Manor Yard. We look forward to welcoming everybody and sharing what will undoubtedly be an amazing day in the most stunning venue!" says Julia Butcher, Marketing Manager of Symondsburys Estate.

"We are striving to renovate, make use and share with others some of the fabulous properties that make up the estate."

Symondsburys Estate has been in the Colfox family for over 150 years. Its 1500 acres is made up of farmland, ancient woodland, residential and commercial property. In addition to this 8 carefully selected properties have been renovated to provide luxurious holiday accommodation.

Royal Shakespeare Company's Richard II leads The Gateway's streams in November

NATIONAL Theatre Live's 2010 broadcast of Alan Bennett's acclaimed play The Habit of Art, with Richard Griffiths and Alex Jennings, returns to screens as part of the National Theatre's 50th anniversary celebrations.

Bennett's play is as much about the theatre as it is about poetry or music. It looks at the unsettling desires of two difficult men, and at the ethics of biography. It reflects on growing old, on creativity and inspiration, and on persisting when all passion's spent: ultimately, on the habit of art.

A superbly fluid production by Nicholas Hytner and beautifully acted.

Bennett the maestro returns with a multi-layered masterpiece. Another absolute cracker, often wonderfully and sometimes filthily funny, but also deeply and unexpectedly moving.

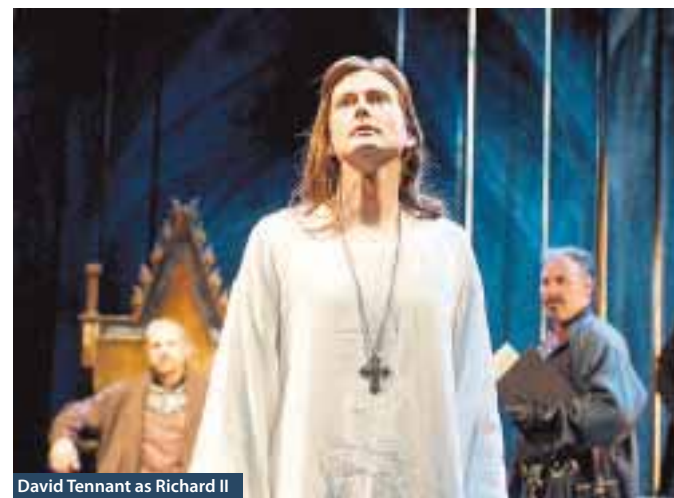

The Habit of Art will be screened at Seaton Gateway at the Town Hall on Thursday, November 7th, doors open 6pm with the show from 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 in advance, £15.00 on the door

Tosca tells the story of the love between the famous opera singer Floria Tosca and the painter and political activist Mario Cavaradossi. Cavaradossi sends the political escapee and former Roman Consul-General, Cesare Angelotti, to hide down the well in his garden.

The evil Baron Scarpia is determined to have Tosca for himself, and invites her to supper in order to discover the whereabouts of Angelotti. He orders the torture of Cavaradossi in her earshot.

Unable to bear his screams of pain, Tosca willingly gives up the information but not before she has persuaded Scarpia to allow her and her lover to escape from Rome.

He insists that to satisfy the authorities, Cavaradossi must undergo a mock execution, and arranges this with one of his henchmen, Spoletta. He then provides

David Tennant as Richard II

Tosca with a note of safe-conduct for her and her lover.

As Scarpia attempts to ravish Tosca, she stabs him. Before his body is discovered, she rushes to the prison in the Castel Sant'Angelo to tell Cavaradossi that he has to face the firing squad, that the muskets will contain blanks, and he will have to act his death.

But Scarpia has tricked Tosca - the bullets are real! As Cavaradossi lies dead and Scarpia's henchmen approach, Tosca is left with no alternative and takes her own life.

Puccini's timeless verismo score is well served by two exceptional casts. Patricia Racette and Sondra Radvanovsky share the title role of the jealous diva, opposite two leading tenors Roberto Alagna and Marcello Giordani. George Gagnidze is the villainous Scarpia.

Puccini's Tosca will be screened at Seaton Gateway on Saturday, November 9th, doors open 5pm for 6pm performance. Tickets cost £15 in advance £17.50 on the door.

Richard II will also be streamed live by satellite to the Gateway big screen from the Royal Shakespeare Company in Stratford upon Avon.

Richard is King. A monarch ordained by God to lead his people. But he is also a man of very human weakness.

A man whose vanity threatens to divide the great houses of England and drag his people into a dynastic civil war that will last 100 years. RSC Artistic Director Gregory Doran directs David Tennant in the title role.

Richard II is the first production in a new cycle of Shakespeare's History plays, directed by Gregory, that will be performed over the coming seasons.

David is joined in the company by Oliver Ford Davies, who also appeared with him in the acclaimed 2008 Hamlet.

Richard II will be screened at the Gateway on Wednesday, November 13th, doors open 6pm, show from 7pm. Tickets cost £12.50 in advance and £15.00 on the door.

Tickets for all show are available from the Town Hall Box Office or by calling 01297 625699.

A licensed bar will be in operation for each performance.

Surround yourself with beautiful things...

DO you love art and have a bit of time to spare? Bridport Arts Centre is looking to recruit additional stewards to its friendly team. The gallery shows a wide variety of work from local, regional and national artists with about 10 different shows a year.

Arts Centre Director Polly Gifford says "The gallery couldn't open its doors without our fantastic stewards. They look after the work and most importantly, they are the face of the Arts Centre, making people feel welcome and telling them about the show."

Anyone is welcome to join the team. Teresa McMann (pictured, left) and Megan Dunford (pictured, right) have both joined in the last couple of years.

Megan said, "I have been volunteering for the All-sop Gallery at Bridport Arts Centre for around 19 months now. The amount of people I have met has been astonishing and the opportunities fantastic! I love seeing how the gallery is transformed every time and how the work set up in there can change your outlook towards the space. I think it's one of the most inviting Art Centres in the South West."

Teresa added, "I volunteer to steward at the Allsop Gallery because I love art and enjoy meeting the variety of people who come to visit. As stewards, we get to meet the artists who tell us about their inspirations, passions and processes and there is usually an opportunity for Q&A too. I just love being in such a creatively diverse space!"

If you'd like to sign up or just find out more information email exhibitions@bridport-arts.com or call the Arts Centre on 01308 427183.

LAU are modern folk music's most innovative band. Brilliant musicians, thrilling performers and free-thinking visionaries.

Their latest album 'Race The Loser' (Reveal Records) was recorded in Scotland through the Spring of 2012 with American producer Tucker Martine (Sufjan Stevens, The Decemberists, R.E.M., Laura Veirs). The album has become Lau's best selling and most acclaimed release to date. Accolades include five stars from The Guardian who also listed the album in their Best Albums of the Year poll and a shortlist nomination for Scottish Album of the Year 2013 (SAY Awards). Following the release in October 2012, Lau were invited to perform on prestigious BBC music TV show Later...with Jools Holland performing 'Torsa' and 'Throwing Pennies' from 'Race The Loser'.

In February 2013 Lau won the award for Best Group at the BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards for a fourth time (winners previously in 2008, 2009 and 2010).

Lau play at Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday, November 23rd. Doors open 7pm for 8pm start. Tickets cost £15+bf in advance, £13+bf in advance for EP Friends, or £17 on the door.

Electric Aussie

DIRECT from sell-out shows at the Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and New Zealand Comedy Festivals, the sublime Australian comic and ex heavy-metal drummer Steve Hughes returns to UK shores to embark upon his second solo tour.

Steve stormed the UK last year with his sell-out debut tour, with extra dates added due to phenomenal demand. On TV, he's recently performed stellar sets on Live at the Apollo and Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow (BBC One), Stand Up For The Week (CH4) & One Night Stand (Dave).

This brand new show features more thoughtful, outspoken social commentary courtesy of a masterful, erudite and provocative performer. Laid-back, effortless charm and caustic anti-establishment humour from a truly unique, world class performer.

Steve Hughes performs at Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday, November 9th. Doors open 7pm, with comedy from 8pm. Tickets cost £16+bf in advance or £18 on the door. Advance tickets are available online at www.electricpalace.org.uk or call 01308 424901.

NEW PLAY BY LOCAL AUTHOR

A compelling story of an episode in the life of William Blake

BRIDPORT'S award-winning theatre club, Encore, perform a play written by local solicitor and member, John Pownall, in the Marlowe Theatre at the Bridport Arts Centre, from Tuesday 19th through to Saturday, November 23rd. Performances start at 7.30pm. Tickets cost £8 on Tuesday and £9 for Wednesday to Saturday. Students and under 16s are half-price.

The play is a fiction based on actual events. William Blake, an otherwise lifelong Londoner, relocates to a village in Sussex. He seeks peace and quiet to do his work as a poet and printer but fate serves him up trouble in the form of a drunken soldier!

William Blake wrote the immortal words "And did those feet in ancient time. Walk upon Englands mountains green" in a short poem which were set to music in 1916 and we sing to this day as the anthem "Jerusalem".

Declan Duffy plays the main role of William Blake with his devoted wife Catherine played by Mel Draper, accompanied by a large cast of familiar talent.

Come and support your local theatre club. Tickets available from the Bridport Arts Centre Box Office 01308 424204

Dance becomes real in heart-pounding performance featuring four male dancers

WHAT happens when Arthur is pushed to a point of decision, backed into a corner where only his choice matters. Does he return to the safe place that never changes? Is ignorance bliss? Or does he surprise himself?

Zoiologic Dance Theatre present a heart pounding exploration of masculinity and fear in a story that asks 'what happens when we are pushed past our limits?'. Featuring an all male cast, it blows away stereotypes about dance drawing on the world of macho action and war movies.

Audiences will be on the edge of their seat as the usually mild mannered Arthur deals with his situation. Highly charged and breathtakingly beautiful, Echo is the type of show that you just don't want to end.

Gemma Oknell the Programming manager of Salisbury Arts Centre said: "It wasn't like dance, it was real".

Zoiologic Dance Theatre are a company who want to bring a shift in the current understanding of male dance styles. The aim is to build new audiences for male dance performances; so if you're new to male dance this could be show that has you hooked.

Zoiologic Dance Theatre perform at Bridport Arts Centre on Wednesday, November 27th, at 8pm.

Tickets £12 adult, £10 members, £8 concessions, £5 under 16s, available from 01308 424204/ www.bridport-arts.com

This Week's releases

GRAVITY <sup>12A</sup>

DR. Ryan Stone is a brilliant medical engineer on her first shuttle mission, with veteran astronaut Matt Kowalsky in command of his last flight before retiring.

But on a seemingly routine spacewalk, disaster strikes. The shuttle is destroyed, leaving Stone and Kowalsky completely alone - tethered to nothing but each other and spiraling out into the blackness.

Drama starring Sandra Bullock, George Clooney and Ed Harris.

CHARLIE COUNTRYMAN <sup>15</sup>

A GUY falls for a woman who's claimed by a violent crime boss.

Stars Shia LaBeouf, Evan Rachel Wood and Mads Mikkelsen.

LOVE TOMORROW <sup>PG</sup>

AFTER an ex-ballet dancer's life is turned upside down after receiving devastating news, a chance encounter with a charismatic dancer marks the start to a fragile friendship that might turn into something more profound.

Stars Cindy Jourdain, Arionel Vargas and Max Brown.

'Pay what you think it's worth'

'THE Price of Everything' by Daniel Bye is heading to Bridport Arts Centre, The Marine Theatre and Dorchester Arts next week and in keeping with the spirit of the show the three venues are pleased to offer you the chance to come along and pay only what you think it's worth for this hilarious and thought-provoking performance lecture.

The show invites the audience to speculate on the value of everything from a glass of milk to an air guitar. It questions why we have to calculate the value of everything in monetary terms and gently introduces the idea of an alternative system.

Comic, provocative, and possibly a tiny bit sad, this show is a must for anyone who has ever wondered about the difference between the price of an object and its value. Plus every audience member gets a free glass of milk!

Mark Tattersall, Artistic Director at Dorchester Arts said: "Daniel raises some important points in the show about how we assign value to things and events, so it seemed only logical to make this offer. We try to give value for money at all our events, but this time people have a chance to vote with their wallets and tell us what they really think".

To guarantee a seat please book your ticket at the box office quoting whatisworth. You can pay by donation at the end of the performance.

The Price of Everything will be performed at: Dorchester Arts Centre on Thursday, November 7th, 8pm. 01305 266926 / www.dorchesterarts.org.uk; Bridport Arts Centre, on Friday, November 8th, 8pm. 01308 424204 / www.bridport-arts.com; The Marine Theatre, Saturday, November 9th, 8pm. 01297 442 394 / www.marinetheatre.com

Well presented three bedroom detached chalet bungalow

FORTNAM
SMITH & BANWELL

THIS well presented three bedroom detached chalet bungalow has been extended and updated by the current owners. On the ground floor is the lounge with a bay window, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, shower room and two bedrooms. A first floor master bedroom with en-suite bathroom having and pleasant outlooks across the town and sea. There are enclosed gardens to the front and rear, garage plus parking. The chalet bungalow is situated in a quiet popular area. Awaiting EPC.

Lyme Regis is famed for its many historic connections and character buildings, and of course, for its well-known Cobb Harbour. As a resort, it is considered quite unspoilt, but has most of the shops and amenities that one could require, in addition to which there are numerous leisure activities including both sailing and power boat clubs, a cliff top golf course and a bowling club. The whole coastline with Lyme Regis and Charmouth at its centre has recently been designated a World Heritage Site (and is commonly known as the Jurassic Coast), putting it in the same category as the Grand Canyon. It lies approximately 5 miles from the market town of Axminster, with its main line railway connections to Waterloo (Approx. 2 3/4 hours). The market town of Bridport is approximately 7 miles distant, with Taunton and Exeter within a radius of about 30 miles with access to the M5 motorway. The county town of Dorchester is within a similar distance.

A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer. Please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Estate Agents on 01297 - 445666 to arrange a viewing.

CHARMOUTH - BYGONE CHARM & CHARACTER

A GREAT opportunity to own a spacious Victorian mid-terrace house within the village.

The house is unique with many original features but with modern comforts too such as a recent new boiler. Three reception rooms, a pretty fitted kitchen and three double bedrooms provide generous living space.

Original fireplace, stunning floor tiles, window shutters shielding the sash windows all provide a period feel.

There is additional flexibility within the large high ceiling attic room which is boarded with stairs and velux to use as you wish. Lovely little area on the landing to utilise as informal seating/desk space too. The family bathroom has been updated and modernised with a walk in shower.

One of the double bedrooms leads out to a wrought iron balcony with stairs down to the garden. Finally to the rear is a wonderful garden facing south and overlooking fields stocked with many shrubs and a willow tree together with a good sized modern timber chalet to one side - perfect for lazy afternoon tea!

For sale at £355,000 Freehold via sole agents Fortnam Smith & Banwell in Charmouth 01297 560945

Citroën updates best-selling Berlingo LCV

The UK's best-selling small van (up to 2.5 tonne gvw) and Citroën's best-selling LCV, the Berlingo, has been updated. Citroën - newly crowned GreenFleet Fleet Car Manufacturer of the Year 2013 - has further extended its green credentials with the latest version of the versatile Berlingo. This popular LCV now benefits from further fuel economy improvements and emissions reductions as well as being refreshed with exterior changes, a new gearbox and more in-cab storage.

From November production onwards the Berlingo range gains a new chrome grille, new side rubbing strips and revised side skirts. Internally, to increase the Berlingo's already high levels of in-cab storage, all Berlingo vans and platform cabs now gain a full-width, over-windscreen storage shelf with map reading lights on either side for both driver and passenger.

In addition, all Berlingo Airdream models previously specified with EGS6 automated manual gearboxes will now be equipped with a new ETG6 (6-speed Efficient Tronic Gearbox). The ETG6 gearbox has been developed to provide improved driveability.

The ETG6 gearbox has optimised pedal mapping to adjust power effectively for smoother start-ups and acceleration. Gear change speeds are modulated more precisely, based on driver input, for improved performance and comfort, and its optimised gear shift patterns further improve efficiency. All Berlingo vans specified with the new ETG6 gearbox also have Electronic Stability Control (ESC), traction control with Hill Start Assist, a passenger airbag, cruise control with driver-adjustable speed limiter and a new Gear Shift Indicator as standard.

Also the latest Berlingo L1 vans powered by the HDi 90 (non e-HDi 90) engine benefit from an improved Combined Cycle fuel economy figure of 56.5 mpg and a CO2 emissions reduction from 138g/km to 132g/km. At the same time Berlingo L2 e-HDi 90 Airdream manual vans see a Combined Cycle fuel economy improvement to 57.6mpg and CO2 reductions to 128g/km. Citroën has also completed a programme to optimise payloads, which has resulted in an increase for virtually every Berlingo van. As a result the Berlingo HDi 90 Manual L1 850 models now have a maximum available payload of 896kg.

▲ The Citroën Berlingo now benefits from further fuel economy improvements

Fleet favourite new Mazda6 emission teduced to 104g/km

THE FLEET favourite and multi award-winning new Mazda6 has become even more appealing for company car drivers with a carbon dioxide (CO2) emission cut that delivers tax savings.

Engine modifications to the SKYACTIV-D 2.2-litre 150ps engine powering both the new Mazda6 Saloon and Tourer manual models deliver a CO2 emission reduction of 4g/km and 6g/km respectively to just 104g/km and 110g/km.

Critically, the engine improvements also deliver improved fuel economy with the Saloon now returning an incredible 72.4mpg (+5.1mpg) and the Tourer 67.3mpg (+3.1mpg) on the combined cycle.

As a result, Mazda expects a further strengthening of corporate demand for the low emission model, with delivery lead times as short as two weeks compared with up to four months of some rivals.

The new Mazda6 2.2-litre 150ps diesel Saloon costs from £21,995 on-the-road (OTR) in SE trim and the emission cut triggers a 2013/14 reduction in P11D percentage values from 16 percent to 15 percent meaning an annual company car benefit-in-kind tax saving of £43.88 for a basic rate taxpayer (£3.66 a month) and an £87.76 (£7.31 a month) saving for a higher rate taxpayer.

Similarly, on the new Mazda6 Tourer, which costs from £22,795 (OTR) in SE trim, the emission cut delivers a 2013/14 reduction in P11D percentage values from 18 percent to 17 percent meaning an annual company car benefit-in-kind tax saving of £45.48 for a basic rate taxpayer (£3.79 a month) and a £90.96 (£7.58 a month) saving for a higher rate taxpayer.

Saloon and Tourer models powered by the SKYACTIV-D 2.2-litre 150ps engine are also available in SE Nav, SE-L, SE-L Nav, Sport* and Sport Nav* trim. Therefore, depending on company car choice, benefit-in-kind tax savings in 2013/14 could be up to £51.68 (£4.31 a month)/£48.48 (£4.04 a month) on the Sport Saloon/SE-L Tourer for a basic rate taxpayer and £103.36 (£8.61 a month)/£96.96 (£8.08 a month) for a higher rate taxpayer.

Employers will also make savings in Class 1A National Insurance contributions, which are paid on benefits-in-kind.

Additionally, while the emissions cut does not impact on first year Vehicle Excise Duty rates the reduction on Tourer (116g/km to 110g/km) delivers a £10 a year saving on future rates as the model drops from Band C to Band B.

Steve Tomlinson, Mazda's Head of Fleet, said: "Mazda engineers have been able to deliver financial savings for company car drivers and businesses without compromising the model in terms of its power, performance or towing capacity.

"Indeed, the improvements that have delivered the CO2 emissions reduction and, consequently, the company car benefit-in-kind tax savings and fuel economy improvements mean that the 2.2-litre 150ps diesel models remain among the most efficient models in the C/D segment.

"The new Mazda6 is the no compromise choice for company car drivers. They can have power, performance and driving fun with low emissions and first class fuel economy due to our SKYACTIV technology. That cannot be obtained from rival manufacturers who have resorted to smaller engine displacements in pursuit of emission and MPG improvements."

Tomlinson added: "Our well-established 'fleet vehicle sold order pot' programme, means our key Business Specialist Network dealers are able to meet corporate demand typically within 10-14 days of orders being placed for the majority of models, which is significantly better than most rival marques."

The Mazda6 has been a fleet favourite for more than a decade and the latest version, which went on sale in early 2013, has won a clutch of honours including 'Best Upper Medium' model in this year's awards from industry publications Fleet News and Fleet World.

The new Mazda6 is available with a choice of 36 models across the two bodystyles, six-speed manual and automatic transmissions and six trim levels (SE, SE Nav, SE-L, SE-L Nav, Sport and Sport Nav). Priced from £19,595 to £28,295 (OTR).

New Panamera Turbo S raises Porsche Gran Turismo to new heights

COMBINING a power output of 570 hp with an extensive level of dynamic and comfort-oriented features, the four door, four seat Porsche Panamera Turbo S epitomises the Gran Turismo concept. The new 192 mph saloon car will be guaranteed special status at the pinnacle of the range when it celebrates its world premiere at the Tokyo Motor Show (22 November - 1 December).

The sporting and luxurious character of the new Panamera Turbo S is evident not only in its driving performance, but also in its distinctive appearance. For example, the dynamic potential is hinted at by the 20-inch 911 Turbo II wheels, which are not only larger but also significantly wider than the standard wheels on other models. And the metallic exterior paint colour, Palladium, that is available solely for the new model not only brings an air of exclusivity but also enhances the purposeful, elegant contours.

New turbochargers and a higher injection pressure boost power by 50 hp

A 50 hp increase in power compared to the Panamera Turbo engine has been achieved through specific revisions to a number of components. Two new turbochargers with larger compressors are fitted to the Turbo S, which increase the air flow and permit more air to be injected into the combustion chambers at high loads and engine speeds. In addition, the injection pressure has been increased by 20 bar to 140 bar. Together, both of these measures also enable higher component loads, and this in turn has been compensated by pistons made from a new aluminium alloy and specially coated piston rings.

This approach has two further advantages. By preparing the air/fuel mixture in the combustion chambers more effectively, torque increases by 50 Nm to 750 Nm between 2,250 and 5,000 rpm, with the overboost increasing to 800 Nm. The extra torque makes the engine even more responsive, such as when overtaking, for instance. The second enhancement is the fact that the New European Driving Cycle (NEDC) fuel consumption figures for the new model are the same as those of the Panamera Turbo at 27.7 mpg; which is an improvement of over 11 per cent versus the prior model.

When fitted with the optional sports exhaust system, the Panamera Turbo S offers drivers the opportunity to further revel in the mellifluous sound of the V8. This unique sound experience is achieved by means of an acoustic channel that can be switched at the push of a button; the channel directs the engine sound straight into the interior.

In addition, individual cylinders are skipped when switching up a gear, allowing the engine speed to fall faster and the clutch to engage quickly.

Sport Chrono package enhances sporty handling characteristics

The new Panamera Turbo S is perfectly equipped to convert its increased power and torque to further emphasise the driving dynamics. At the heart of this is the optimum power transmission, the Porsche Traction Management (PTM) all-wheel drive system. The Sport Chrono package is fitted as standard, and co-ordinates the drivetrain and chassis configuration at the touch of a button to guarantee consistently sporting responses. Furthermore, the overboost function is activated in 'Sport' and 'Sport Plus' mode as well as during kickdown in 'Normal' mode; the overboost function temporarily increases the turbocharger boost pressure to enable even swifter acceleration and sprinting capability. The 'Launch Control' race start function guarantees the best possible acceleration by optimally coordinating the responses of the engine control system and the Porsche Doppelkupplung (PDK) gearshift programme. Courtesy of a reworked gear shifting strategy, the PDK changes between its seven gears even more rapidly, accelerating the Turbo S from 0 to 62 mph in 3.8 seconds.

Chassis with all Panamera assistance systems

Porsche Active Suspension Management (PASM) is the centre-piece of the chassis control systems, combining adaptive air suspension and adaptive damper control as standard. The PASM continuously adjusts the damper forces and adapts them to suit road conditions and driving style. Using the PASM chassis button on the centre console, the driver can choose between three performance maps - 'Comfort', 'Sport' and 'Sport Plus'. Similarly, the adaptive air suspension offers the ability to activate different spring rates to introduce a greater range of chassis characteristics, giving drivers the choice between a high level of comfort and very sporting driving dynamics.

Thinning of the Porsche Dynamic Chassis Control

(PDCC) and Porsche Torque Vectoring (PTV) Plus ensures the Turbo S features the most advanced version of the Panamera chassis as standard. The PDCC restricts the rolling movement of the car on its longitudinal axis by applying a counter torque using active anti-roll bars on the front and rear axles. This system also improves vehicle stability via dynamic roll moment distribution, resulting in excellent agility in every speed range as well as optimum steering performance and balanced load alteration behaviour. Increased responsiveness is achieved because the tyres constantly maintain the ideal position on the road, allowing optimised lateral forces to build up and act upon each tyre. Variable roll moment distribution also directly influences the vehicle's self-steering properties.

Lack of tyre maintenance is increasing road risk for the majority of young drivers

YOUNG drivers are at a greater risk of being involved in a tyre related accident through a lack of regular tyre maintenance, according to a new survey commissioned by TyreSafe and young driver insurer ingenie.

Over a third of drivers aged 18-25 had never checked their tread depth – and two out of three had not checked their tread within the last month, the maximum period recommended between checks.

A similarly worrying picture emerged regarding tyre pressures. A quarter confessed they had never checked their tyre pressures, with three out of five admitting they had not checked them in the last month.

The research also highlighted the need to better educate young drivers about the importance of proper tyre care, as almost half admitted they'd never been shown how to check the condition of their tyres. More than half of those questioned also didn't know that it was the driver's responsibility to ensure that the car's tyres are safe and legal and a massive 85 percent were unaware that the maximum fine for driving on an illegal tyre was £2,500; and more than a third were unaware that drivers could receive three penalty points for driving on an illegal tyre. With new drivers getting their licence revoked if they receive six points in two years – the equivalent of driving on two illegal tyres – young drivers need to be made aware there are serious consequences of driving on illegal tyres.

"Regular basic tyre maintenance is a critical element of being a safe and responsible driver, yet these latest findings would suggest that this message is being lost on young drivers today," comments Stuart Jackson, chairman, TyreSafe. "We saw an increase last year in the number of tyre related road casualties and if we fail to take immediate action in educating young drivers about the need to look after their tyres properly, sadly we can only expect to see this figure rise further."

Richard King, founder and CEO of ingenie added: "With almost half of young drivers never having been shown how to check the condition of their tyres, it's clear that we need to do more to ensure they have the right knowledge in this area. At ingenie we're all about helping young people save on their insurance by driving safely, so launching this video in partnership with TyreSafe continues our commitment to helping young drivers stay safe on the road"

Tread depth and tyre pressure checks are important for safe driving as they ensure that the car can brake, accelerate, corner and handle properly. These are of particular importance during the winter months as worsening weather conditions make driving more hazardous. However, according to TyreSafe, regular checks which should be carried out on a monthly basis, can help to minimise safety risks and need only take a few minutes to complete.

To help young drivers understand the consequences of poor tyre care and how they should be checked, TyreSafe and ingenie have released a video starring BBC Outnumbered actor

Tyger Drew-Honey, who has recently passed his driving test.

During the movie, which can be seen by visiting www.tyresafe.org/tyre-safety/young-drivers, two other young drivers are quizzed on their tyre knowledge and are shown the consequences of poor tyre care in a dramatic emergency stop manoeuvre recreation.

Three off at Henhayes and Shepton Pymore and Ambers out of county cup

CHARD HOSPITAL CUP FINAL

ILMINSTER RES 0 SOUTH PETHERTON 4
SECOND-HALF goals from Ashley Smith (2), Lee Holt and Paul Holt saw division one outfit South Petherton beat Ilminster Town Reserves 4-0 at Thorncombe on Sunday to clinch the Chard Hospital cup for the fifth time in ten years.

Premier division Ilminster shipped four goals for the third game in a row.

DORSET JUNIOR CUP (R2 16)

NETHERBURY 0 AFC BLANDFORD 4

A POOR first-half performance and two braces of quick fire goals in either half was enough to dump Netherbury out of the Dorset Junior Cup.

The Ambers started poorly and were punished in the 15th minute when Blandford striker Aaron Lawes evaded several challenges to fire in a low shot past the returning Mark Cuff.

There was little response from the Ambers and they went 2-0 down when Lawes latched onto an under hit back pass from Ryan Gay, to win the 50/50 battle with Cuff for an easy tap in.

Netherbury finally got going in the last 20 minutes and Gary Corry was unlucky not to score after some neat approach play.

The visitors made the game safe 10 minutes after the restart when the ball was lost on the halfway line. Lawes then skipped past a couple of challenges to complete a fine hat-trick.

He also scored the fourth soon after when Cuff committed himself a long way out of his goal.

The Ambers improved in the last 30 minutes and showed some fight but could not manage a goal that their play deserved. Manager Andy Loudon said: "It's really disappointing we played so poorly in the first half and yet again gave away some poor goals."

"Blandford had three or four very good players - Lawes gave us problems all game. "I was happy to see us keep going though and we were unlucky not to get a goal or two".

Loudon picked out the returning Karl Ives and John Kingston has his top players.

PYMORE 0 CELTIC TAVERN 2

PYMORE hopes of a 10th anniversary repeat of their Dorset Junior cup triumph ended with a home defeat at the hands of Bournemouth League division three high fliers Celtic Tavern.

In the day's other tie Thorncombe failed to raise a team for the long trip to Stickland United.

REVISED QUARTER-FINAL DRAW:

Maiden Newton & Cattistock v Stickland United, AFC Blandford v Mere Town Reserves or Charmouth, Tavern Celtic Reserves v Portland Town Reserves, Lyme Regis Reserves or Wayown Hounds v Broadstone FC Seniors.

PREMIER

CREWKERNE TOWN 3 BEAMINSTER 1

BEAMINSTER'S three-game winning run came to an end in a stormy encounter at Henhayes.

Beaminster were put on the back foot early by a hamstring injury to Josh Hunter. The hosts took the lead through Paul McCormack but Alex Stevenson levelled before the interval.

Brad Miles, on his debut after signing from Ilminster, had an influential second-half setting up goals for Jamie Spurdle, his 15th of the season, and Adam Swinnerton. Referee Simon Salter took centre stage in the last 10 minutes as he dismissed McCormack and Dan Pyett after an altercation.

Centre-back Dean Hyett also headed off for an early shower when he received a second yellow in injury time.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 0 PERRY STREET 2

THERE were three red cards at Brimgrove Lane too!

Ryan Mason put the visitors 1-0 at half-time but the fun and games happened after the turnaround.

Referee Len Wilcox showed Steve Usher a straight red for raising a hand to an opponent. He was closely followed by team mate Will Applin for a foul on Street 'keeper Nathan Bandy.

Bandy himself was the next to go for a foul - a decision that even mystified Shepton manager Aggy Smith.

Street manager Ian Hilton donned the gloves and saved the resulting penalty from Kris Hastings who failed from the spot for the second week in succession.

Braden Symes sealed the Mothers' win late-on.

LYME REGIS 5 W & M CHINNOCK 1

VISITING West & Middle Chinnock's miserable record at the Davey Fort was continued on Saturday.

After a goal less opening quarter the deadlock was broken by Lyme defender Mark Batey in the 24th minute when he deftly guided home a hip-high close range volley from a Joel Gostling corner.

Julien Simier doubled the lead soon after when he tapped into an empty net after good work from Joe Bond.

Aaron Cleal missed a golden opportunity to make it 3-0 before half-time when he missed an open net from close in.

The third goal did arrive soon after the interval when Bond jinked his way through his markers before slamming home a shot into the top corner.

Cleal atoned for his earlier miss when he bundled the ball home from five yards to make it 4-0.

The pick of the goals came in the 73rd minute when Simier played a couple of one-two with Mark Bailey before coolly slotting home.

Mark Cawley netted his fifth of season for the Chinnocks consolation.

Lyme manager Tim Edwards, who reverted to a 4-4-2 formation for this game, was impressed by two-goal Simier, he said: "Julien looked sharp today, he took his goals well and could well be running into form at just the right time."

Edwards was also pleased to see captain Matt Laing have a 30-minute run-out off the bench following a spell out with an ankle injury.

DIVISION ONE

BEAMINSTER RES 2 BARRINGTON 2

BEAMINSTER Reserves finally ended a miserable run of seven consecutive defeats as Joe Singleton and Dan Tolman netted in a 2-2 draw at The Memorial Ground.

FORTON RANGERS 9 UPLYME 3

UPLYME felt the sting of live wire striker Taylor Jefferson as he scored his first goals for the Forton first team since his move from Ilminster Town.

Jefferson struck five times as The Swallows suffered their biggest defeat since they were beaten by the identical score by Thorncombe back in September 2005.

Joel Seward, Spencer Davies and an own goal made up the visitors' consolations. Josh Higgins, Lee Richardson, Dave Fowler and Robbie Walker also netted for Forton who in-turn chalked up their biggest win in more than 10 years.

DIVISION TWO

CHARMOUTH 3 CREWKERNE TOWN RES 0

CHARMOUTH recorded back-to-back clean sheets for the first time in four years as they beat Crewkerne Reserves at Barr Lane on Saturday.

The Robins took the lead when player-manager Andy Potter picked out Ryan Bearpark with pinpoint long-range pass. The young striker then curled a shot into the top corner.

Paul Miners doubled the lead after the break with a shot that struck an upright on its way in.

The victory was sealed when Matt Pile latched onto a Scott Meyers header before rounding the 'keeper and tapping home.

The only low point for Charmouth was a dislocated and fractured finger for Ryan Bearpark.

ILMINSTER COLTS 1 WAYTOWN HOUNDS 1

A DRAW was probably a fair result in a game of few chances.

The Hounds took the lead when Steve Masters scored with a cross shot that went in the far corner.

Ilminster levelled with 30 minutes to go with a well struck free-kick from Chris May. Rich Shill and Paul Watkins had good games for the visitors.

DIVISION THREE

HAWKCHURCH UTD 1 LYME BANTAMS 3

LYME Regis Bantams came from behind to move into the leading pack in division three.

Hawkchurch took the lead in the fourth minute through Ollie Bailhache who launched a 35-yarder that swerved in the swirling wind and deceived Lyme 'keeper Jedd Whittington.

The Seasideers were level soon after courtesy of a Steve Batey strike to leave the teams all square at the break.

A head injury forced joint-manager Mark Hodder off and saw Ben Morgan enter the fray.

Morgan was to have a key impact in the outcome of the game.

Before then Lyme were reduced to 10 when left-back Ryan Turner was shown a second yellow card by referee John Thorne.

Undeterred, the Seasideers took the lead through Morgan before going down to nine in 92nd minute when Andy David was forced off with a hamstring strain and all available subs had been used.

Remarkably the nine-men not only held on, but they scored again with Morgan once again on target.

Top performer for the visitors was right-back Jim Maidment.

DIVISION FOUR

UPLYME RES 2 MISTERTON RES 6

GOALS from Tom Stephens-Fouracre and Tom Gollop couldn't save Uplyme Reserves from a 6-2 defeat at Venlake.

Dave is popular choice

with Paul Moffitt

AT the recent Lyme Regis Bowls Club's dinner and presentation of trophies, the Captain's plate was awarded to Dave Wood.

This trophy is presented by the Captain, Philip Stephens, to a Club member who he feels has contributed to the running of the Club over and above the norm - there can surely be no argument that Dave was that person during 2013.

Not only did he very ably assist Philip as Vice Captain but, was ever present to help and assist his wife Sue who was our very hardworking Cater

RUGBY ROUND-UP

Blues fall to last gasp penalty

Bridport 22 Blandford 25
BRIDPORT continued their seesaw season against Blandford on a blustery afternoon at the Brewery ground.

In front of a good home crowd the visitors maintained their unbeaten start to the season with a winning penalty in the dying seconds of the game.

Having been soundly beaten at Wimborne last week, the Blues faced a side who sat second in the league, where short crisp passes and low level kicks were required to master the swirling wind. Neither side got this right all the time.

The visitors started strongly and were rarely out of the home 22 for the first quarter of the match.

And their pressure finally paid when the right wing finished off some short passes to score an unconverted try.

Bridport eventually forced their way up the field to threaten the visitors line, and a Blue scrummage from a Blandford knock on gave the home scrum-half the opportunity to release his backs, and winger Tom Wilkins completed the movement with a try in the right corner.

Rory Greening had good fortune to make the conversion in the unpredictable wind to give the lead to the home side 7-5.

Greening again added to the score with a penalty in the 32nd minute to extend the hosts lead to 10-5.

Bridport scored again when John Butler took the ball in a quick line out, inter-passed with hooker Tony Herbert then strolled over the visitor's line.

However Blandford responded and challenged the Bridport line, and a scrummage close to the home line resulted in a very clumsy pushover try of some doubt which was unconverted to leave the Blues 15-10 ahead at half-time.

The second-half started with end-to-end action. Veteran Herbert got very close to the visitors line with a strong bursting run, and from the ensuing melee were able to pluck the ball out for captain Dave Cutting to finish off with a sparkling try converted by Greening to give the home side a 22-10 lead.

Blandford were not a side to pack up their tent and go home however and back up the field they swept, and a corking crash-through from a big Blandford centre which was converted gave his team heart.

Despite fresh replacements the game went a little flat in the latter part of the second-half and neither team could get the upper hand.

Then with just five minutes to go the visitors protected their unbeaten run with a bustling unconverted try.

It looked like it was going to be an honourable draw but an act of silly petulance by a blue back gave a dying second penalty to Blandford to score and take victory at 22-25.

Bridport Head Coach, Krissie

Washington and team Manager, Grant Connelly were both disappointed at the final result but took heart in the turnaround from last week's efforts.

Good numbers at training in the week and the improvements shown auger well for the away game to Oakmedians in Bournemouth next week.

Rory Greening was awarded the Palmer's Wine Store Man-of-the-Match.

Bridport 2nd's had yet another week of no rugby as Crewkerne could not raise a team for their friendly match.

The very rusty seconds will host Ellingham & Ringwood at the Brewery Ground next Saturday.

Bridport U16 34 Dorchester 22
DORCHESTER brought a 12-man squad and so in the spirit of the game borrowed three Bridport players.

The result was an even game with the lead changing three times during the match, but Bridport's strength in the forwards proved to be the decisive ingredient, and three late tries sealed victory.

Bridport U11 34 Ivel 14
THE newly formed Yeovil side struggled during the first-half where Bridport pressure was applied through a brilliant forward performance that led to five tries from the backs with two conversions.

The second-half was a different game as Ivel dominated with good momentum.

They fought hard and scored two tries, both successfully converted.

The pressure was absorbed by Bridport with a late try to finish what was a great match to watch.

Taelor Hopgood and Reuben Jolliffe both scored two tries, with George Amos and Ryan Phillips both getting one.

Jolliffe successfully converted two of the tries.

3rd 50m Backstroke, Baylei Callow 11, 1st 50m Freestyle.

The relay teams also showed some determined swimming, with 13 top three positions including two first places going to the Girls Open Medley team of Melissa Hanson, Tessa Down, Lauren Harrison and Hannah Pullinger, and the Girls 11/Under Medley team of Daisy Brett, Megan Herbert, Xanthe Dyer and Baylei Callow.

Boys: Luke van den Barselaar, Jake Hallam, Ben Fowler, Joe Spurway, Oli Bilbie, Jamie Pullinger, Lewis Pearson, Iain Ross, Ben Greenslade, Henry

Taswell, Leo Kindred, Simon Davis, Joss Copeman, Oliver Bright, Michael Moulding, Louis Rood and Jimmy Brett.

Congratulations to all the swimmers for a great performance, and a big thank you to all the Club coaches, officials, team managers, and time-keepers and all who helped to make the event a success.

Chard now look forward to another strong performance in the second round in November.

If you want to find out more about Chard Swimming Club or are interested in joining we have sessions for age 5/6 years upwards at pools in Chard, Axminster, Crewkerne and long course training at Millfield.

Sophie lifted by lessons with Faldo

DAILY sessions with Sir Nick Faldo won six major tournaments in his career; three British Opens and three US Masters; inspired Axminster's Sophie Keech to second place in the Faldo World Series Golf competition at The Greenbrier in West Virginia.

Keech, who was representing Parkstone Golf Club, has just returned from the USA competition where she finished runner-up in the Ladies U21 competing against 101 other top players from around the world.

She led by one shot after the first round on one of America's toughest courses with exceptionally difficult greens, but after the second round went into the final 18 holes second and two shots off the lead.

Playing in freezing conditions and snow on the final day she excelled herself to secure second spot.

Keech said: "It was the most incredible experience playing at the Greenbrier - from the hotel to the stunning course in fall time, and with the expertise and daily sessions from Nick Faldo himself, this has been the perfect end to my 2013 season."

Keech had just returned from her invitation to play in the Telegraph and BMW final at Quinta da Lago where she achieved a very creditable fourth place.

"The golf course facilities and sponsors could not have been better, and it was an honour to be invited in such a prestigious event", she said.

She will now spend some of the winter months away training after being selected for the England performance squad, and with her pro Karen Nicholls at Millfield School preparing for 2014.

Dovell smashes home late, late winner

BRIDPORT 2 RADSTOCK TOWN 1
Toolstation Premier – att: 106

RYAN Dovell grabbed a dramatic 93rd minute winner for Bridport at St Mary's Field last Saturday to extend their winning run to three games.

In a pulsating match despite the strong swirling wind that made life difficult for the players, Radstock took the lead just after the interval before Dan Wise equalised from the penalty spot with 20 minutes remaining.

Manager Trevor Senior started with Max Buckler up front alongside Dovell and it was the postman who delivered the first chance on three minutes with a run down the right before crossing to Matt Morley beyond the far post.

Whether the wind held the ball up or the former Weymouth winger was slow to react, but the opportunity was missed as the ball was cleared.

Radstock had a great opportunity almost immediately from a free-kick which dropped over Ryan Hayter's head and found Mark Chiddy on the corner of the six yard box, but he missed his kick as he turned to shoot at goal.

The Bees were having some success early on down the right with Wise and Dovell combining well and from one such move the latter pulled his angled shot wide of the far post. Wise then put in Chris Luke whose determined run saw him finish with a similar angled shot but Miners' keeper Lewis Pierre did well to palm his fierce near post shot behind for a corner.

Although Bridport had the most advantage from the wind blowing up the pitch from West Bay in the first half, both sides were suffering at times as it bizarrely swirled around without warning, but continued to play at a high tempo.

Chiddy had a chance on 17 minutes but the ball would not come down quickly enough and his shot dipped over the crossbar. It looked certain that Dovell would head the Bees in front just after the half hour when Wise found him stood at the far post alone, but the ball held up in the wind and dropped like a stone.

Dovell then saw his close range shot blocked by Pierre after an exhilarating run from Morley that took him past three defenders, before Buckler had an effort blocked.

Dovell closed the first half that should have seen Bridport maybe one if not two goals up on chances created, when he turned central defender Adrian Harvey but fired his shot just past the far post.

With the advantage of the elements, the Miners started the second-half strongly and after Sam Filkins struggled to keep out Mario Matteus' angled shot, they went ahead on 51 minutes when Jordan Townsley judged his run to perfection to bullet home a diving header at the far post from Callum Elms' low cross that screeched across the six-yard box.

Bridport stung by this tried to respond but Darren Watts' 30-yard calculated shot didn't cause Pierre too much trouble.

However, Wise might have done better than to fire wildly wide of the near upright after Dovell had played him in on the right hand side of the penalty area.

It looked like they were not going to breach the Miners defence until the 70th minute when they were awarded a penalty.

Referee Mark Derrian pointed to the spot, much to the Radstock benches disapproval, after a defender had gone through the back of Buckler as he tried to shield the ball. Wise sent the keeper the wrong way from the spot.

Perhaps still upset with the decision, Dovell almost cashed in on confusion between Harvey and Pierre two minutes later.

They responded positively however soon after when Bridport's Man-of-the-Match skipper Hayter headed substitute Omar Lindsay's fierce cross from under the crossbar, before Townsley almost made Sam Filkins pay for a poor goal kick, but his volley on the turn cleared the goal frame.

Neither side was settling for a draw and soon after Dovell forced Pierre into a good save down near his right hand post.

The Bees' keeper then saved well from Matteus' excellent overhead kick but then could only watch prostrate after blocking Lindsay's free kick as Harvey shot just wide from the rebound.

Shane Evans produced a brilliant tackle to stop Matteus getting a clear run on goal, before Bridport snatched the winner three minutes into added time.

Luke refused to give up on a Matt Condiliffe cross from the right that appeared to be going out for a goal kick, and hooked the ball over his head and back into the goalmouth from the byline where Dovell beat Pierre and a defender to hammer it home from virtually on the goal line for a very welcome three points.

Big three all through progress

DORSET SENIOR CUP ROUND-UP

ALL three of our local top teams progressed to the quarter-finals of the Dorset Senior Cup last week, although whilst Dorchester Town and Weymouth had no real problems advancing, Bridport needed extra time to overcome Toolstation Premier League rivals Sherborne Town.

It was an eventful night at St Mary's with the visitors having their manager Jamie Manley and his assistant Richard Parkinson being sent to the dressing room and Hayden Binding also dismissed for two yellow cards.

Torrential rain that began after halftime didn't help either as Sherborne finished with three dismissals and seven cautions whilst Bridport also had three booked.

Sherborne took the lead seven minutes before half-time when Hayden fed Matt Day down the left who cut in before beating debutant keeper Dan Floyd with a superb angled shot.

The Bees equalised two minutes after the interval following a poor clearance from keeper Ben Cochrane, normally a central defender pressed ganged due to injuries. His kick went to Matt Condiliffe who fed Ryan Dovell to score from close range.

Sub Chris Luke gave the Bees the lead with his first touch midway through the half from Dovell's cut back, but Sherborne squared the tie on 82 minutes when Binding scored with a shot through a crowded goalmouth that found the corner of the net.

Matt Morley eventually settled the scrappy tie when after being played in by Luke, he cut in along the byline before beating Cochrane at his near post.

The keeper almost levelled it in the dying minutes however when he came up for a corner, but his header was scrambled off the line.

Brandon Goodship, on loan from AFC Bournemouth, scored a hat-trick as the Magpies easily dismissed Hamworthy Recreation 6-0 at The Avenue.

Nick Crittenden, Jake Rowley and Alex Godfrey were also on target, while a brace from Mark Ford and one from Matt Groves saw the Terras triumph 3-0 over Shaftesbury at the Bob Lucas Stadium.

They will now host Bridport in the quarter-final on December 3rd, while Dorchester Town will visit Hamworthy United 24 hours later.

Bees hindered by inconsistency

SWANAGE & HERSTON 2 BRIDPORT RESERVES 1

ALL Bridport Reserves' manager Robin Townsend needed was an inconsistent referee.

His side have proved to be very much a Jekyll and Hyde side this season with inconsistent results and while once again the Bees had missed some great chances were pushing for an equaliser when Sean Stewart who had already been rightly cautioned earlier on was sent off for hand ball.

"I thought the ref, who was being assessed, had controlled the game superbly until five minutes from time.

"Sean had quite correctly in my opinion been cautioned earlier for a foul, but he was then booked for deliberate handball in a situation not of his making; the ball ricocheting off another player - about a yard away - on to his hand which is down by his side. No way was it deliberate or could he have prevented it.

"The same happened earlier in the game with a Swanage player and he awarded us a free-kick which was correct, so that should have been what happened with Sean.

"We're looking for consistency from the officials and we didn't get it.

"That took the wind out of our sails a bit, but we still had chances to equalise," said Townsend, the former Lyme Regis boss, who was quite pleased with his side's overall performance.

"We played reasonably well and after about 20 minutes started to take control and created three good chances, two of them excellent but didn't score; the worst on 40 minutes when Tom Richardson tried to walk the ball in the net from six yards and the ball somehow ended up past the post."

Swanage had taken the lead on the half hour when a clearance from a corner went to Sam Beale 25 yards from goal and his shot just evaded Billy Fleet who slipped on the greasy surface as he went to save.

"I thought that we should have been at least level if not in front at half-time.

"We looked the stronger team and knew what we needed to do in the second-half, but to be fair Swanage probably shaded the second-half, although once again we created lots of chances."

Robin Jones had a great chance after creating an opportunity but shot straight at the keeper, before he equalised with 18 minutes to go when following a good run down the line, he cut in before beating the keeper with a good shot.

Tails up, Bridport went looking for a winner but then gifted the Swans a winner ten minutes from the end.

Adam Steele, for no apparent reason, threw the ball into the middle of the field from a throw-in which was quickly picked up by Jacob Harrop who immediately lobbed the unsuspecting Fleet from 25 yards for what turned out to be the winner.

There was one positive that came out of the game. Sixteen-year-old Rhys Hayter who made his debut for Bridport 3rds the week before, was immediately promoted following his fine display, and came on for the last 15 minutes.

"He looked very good in the short time he was on, and one to watch for the future. He may well get a start next week."

Bridport claim another cup scalp

BRIDPORT YOUTH U17s 4 CORFE MULLEN U18s 2

DESPITE a lacklustre first-half performance Bridport U17s were the first to score in this Dorset U18s Cup tie when Jonah Ayunga rounded the keeper for Will Lovell to slam the ball in the net.

The architect of the move, Billy Jones, was soon substituted, bleeding and minus a tooth having bravely blocked a powerful Corfe cross.

Nevertheless, the visitors were still confidently in the ascendancy and despite excellent keeping from Will Aburrow, it was only a matter of time before they crowded the Bridport box and equalised just before half time.

The home team came out full of confidence for the second half and used the full width of the St Mary's pitch to dominate play.

Several goal attempts were cleared in the Corfe six yard box or denied only by keeper or crossbar.

Thirty minutes in and Bridport delivered what felt like the coup de grace when Sam Tabner blasted in a shot from short range.

The home side remained solid until two minutes from time when a Corfe corner was converted to make it 2-2 as keeper Aburrow appeared to be impeded.

However, despite this set-back, Bridport refused to think or play negatively in extra time and, as Corfe began to tire and to kick with hope rather than belief, Bridport reclaimed the lead when Ayunga again wrong footed the keeper to score.

The final 15 minutes swathe hosts coolly dig in and hold on to the advantage, inviting Corfe on, and a blistering counter attack was finished off by Tabner to seal the result which silenced the hugely vocal Corfe supporters in the stand.

Manager Terry Warren said: "Conceding an equaliser just before half time and another just before full time would demoralise and spell disaster for many teams. Not these lads; they knew they were the better team and fought to prove it.

"The boys and I would all like to thank Bridport FC, and in particular the ground staff, for use of the pitch. We're now in the quarter-finals of the U18 County Cup and we think we've proved ourselves more than worthy of this arena."

Loudon brace seals top of table win

BRIDPORT U14 3 DORCHESTER RAIDERS 1

BRIDPORT U14's entertained Dorchester Raiders in this top of the table clash, and on a wet and windy day both teams played some really good football, keeping the ball on the ground and not letting the wind ruin what turned out to be a very entertaining game.

The home team started the stronger but it was Raiders who took the lead with an own goal following a goalmouth scramble.

This only made Bridport more determined, and they equalised through a brave header from Thomas Hyde which saw him injured for his efforts.

This saw the hosts really take control with Harry Kirby and Henry Davey controlling midfield, and with Nathan Rollett having his best game of the season, Bridport never looked threatened.

They increased their lead with a brace of goals from Callen Loudon who continually tore the visitors to bits with his runs.

If not for an impressive performance from the Dorchester keeper it could have been a far more impressive scoreline, but manager Lee Cuff returned home with a very important win under his belt.

Some cheer for local cricket quartet at league presentation night

DESPITE the failure of the region's top two Premier league clubs, four local teams were recognised for their achievements in this year's Dorset Funeral Plan Cricket League at the annual presentation evening held recently at Wimborne and Colehill Cricket Club, while the Martinstown groundstaff won a special award.

Cattistock couldn't quite overhaul Cerne Valley for the Division Three title, finishing runners-up just eight points adrift.

Both sides won 13 games but Cattistock, who lost only two, one less than the champions, lost one more game to the weather which could have made the difference between them winning the title. Martin Langford received the runners-up award.

Bridport, having dropped to Division Four, found their level and were always in contention for promotion back up the leagues.

Whilst they couldn't catch runaway leaders Wareham, who only lost once during the season, the fought off Pimperne for the runner-up spot; captain Liam Toohill accepting the award on the night.

South Somerset side Crewkerne just failed to overhaul North Dorset side Shillingstone 2nds for the Division Five North & West title.

They finished seven points behind having had three games washed out against Shillingstone's one, which again might have seen a different final situation. Ashley Lawrence picked up the award on behalf of the club.

◆ BRIDPORT: Liam Toohill receives the Div 4 runners-up trophy from Shane Watson (right) of sponsors, The Dorset Funeral Plan

Charlton Down celebrated promotion in their first season in Saturday cricket, although they had to be content with runners-up in Division Six to a very strong Chalke Valley team who beat them to the title by seven points.

Captain Pete Tucker who received the award was delighted at the success of his young side and playing so many fixtures. "It was fantastic"

The evening also saw several special awards presented including the Groundsman of the Year which was won by Martinstown's groundstaff; Paul House; John O'Brien; Jim Godding and Jon Nichols; for their superb grooming of the Lower Ashton Farm wicket.

League Chairman John Ridout hailed the season a triumph, especially after last year's incessant rain.

He said: "It was lovely to see so many completed fixtures compared with last season. We only had one or two washouts when no cricket was played.

"As a whole the leagues were very competitive, with some sides on the path back to former glories and others maintaining their success of recent seasons."

Representatives of the sponsors, The Dorset Funeral Plan, attended to present the awards.

Nick Douch, from the sponsors, said: "The cricket is competitive, but played in the right spirit and that is why we are pleased to continue to sponsor the league and be associated with it."

INSIDE: Comprehensive local sport round-up

Late strike makes it three in a row

BRIDPORT manager Trevor Senior was relieved that it was his side that had snatched a late goal to claim victory over Radstock Town on Saturday.

Ryan Dovell not only secured the Bees third victory in a row but also reversed the trend in many games this season where the opposition have scored a late goal, when he scored the winner in the 93rd minute.

The Bees boss however felt that should his side taken their chances in the first quarter of the match, then the game would have been over.

The encounter was spoiled by a very strong, blustery wind that in the main blew down the pitch towards the Beehive, but also swirled around the pitch in all directions at times. As a result it was not a fluent game, although both sides played at a high tempo and did well in the circumstances.

"Radstock were a very poor side, probably the worst side we've played this season, and if we had taken our chances in the first 20 minutes it would have been game over.

by STUART BROOM
stuart@pemedi.co.uk

"I was disappointed that we didn't kill them off and we should have been a goal or two up at the break, but I didn't have much to say at half-time except that we were missing a goal."

As has happened many times this season, Bridport paid for not converting their opportunities and went a goal down six minutes into the second-half.

Senior continued: "To be fair it was a cracking goal, but typical of how things have gone for us after having lots of possession."

"The penalty put us back in it; the referee confirming that their defender came through the back of Max Buckler; and we won the game when Chris Luke didn't give up and kept the ball alive for Ryan to bundle home."

Senior conceded that the conditions did not help which resulted in a number of passes going astray, but also admitted that his players did not always pick the right pass.

"We made it really difficult for ourselves but it would have been very disappointing if we hadn't got anything from the game."

Looking at the results so far this season Senior believes there is very little between the sides.

"In most games we have put up a good account of ourselves, and I think that nearly every one has been fairly even. The first-half against Buckland Athletic is the only time when we have been completely outclassed."

The win sees the Bees move up to 13th in the Toolstation Premier League.

Senior concluded by saying: This win will boost our confidence and we played for the full 90 minutes, which is what I've been asking the lads to do."

The Bees have a very busy November with another seven games scheduled:
9th Ilfracombe (a); 13th Buckland Ath (a); 16th Bishop Sutton (h); 20th Chard (a) Les Phillips Cup; 23rd Winterbourne Utd (a); 27th Sherborne Town (a) and 30th Hallen (h).
